"As students getting an education, we now lack one of the most important parts of learning — communicating with people. If more classes were held on a seminar basis, we'd all gain something we'd use throughout life. "Monica Radtke '73

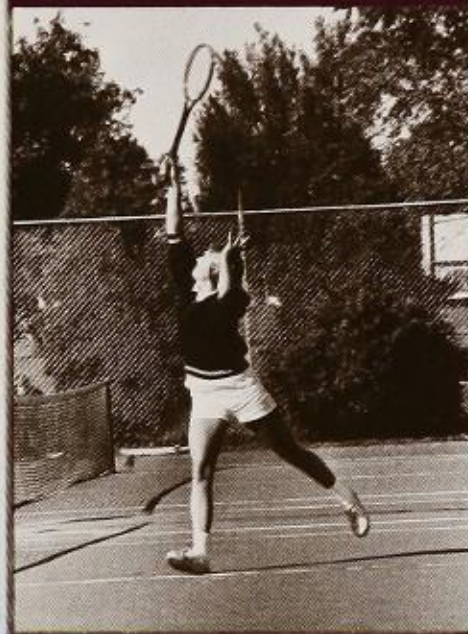

"In place of $(2 + 2 = 4)$ it would be nice (friends + caring = life). Life's essentials are what we need prepare for-getting along with one another is where our learning must begin." Figeas

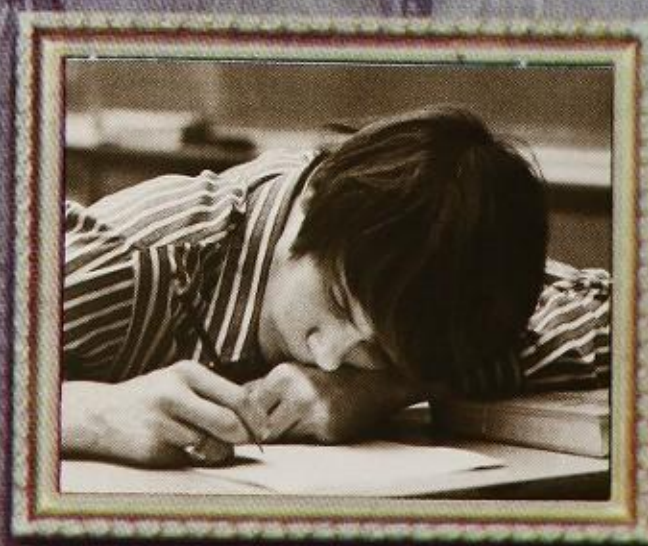

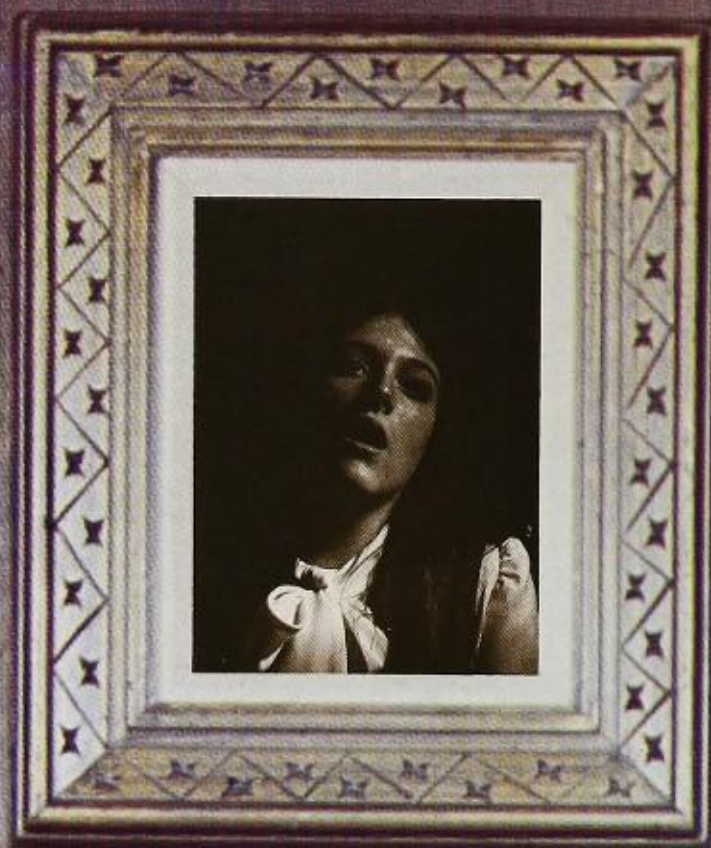

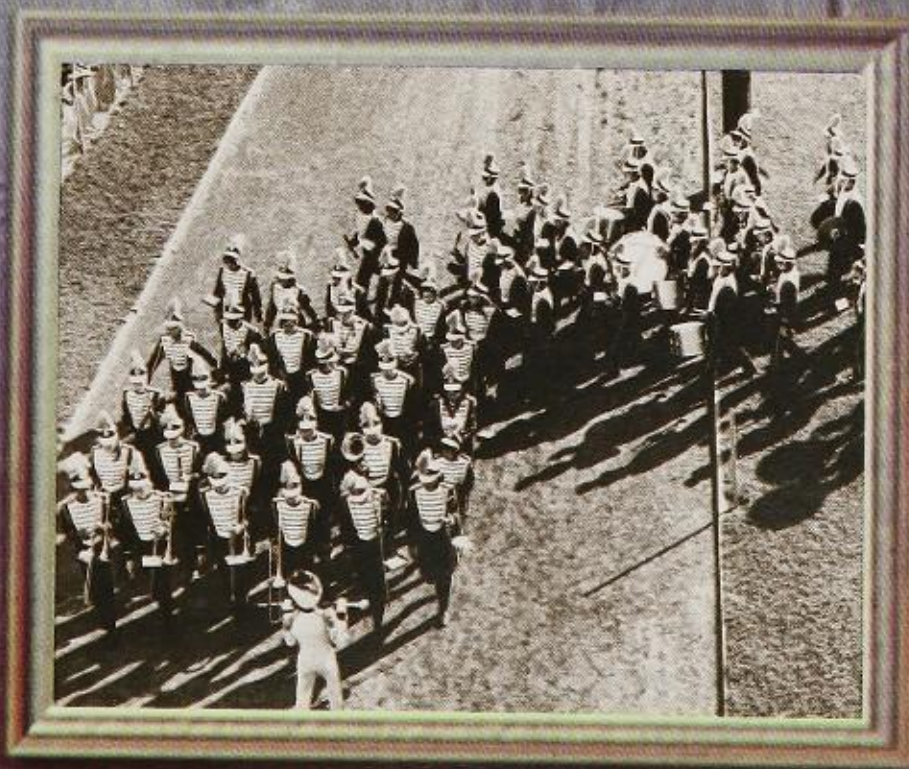

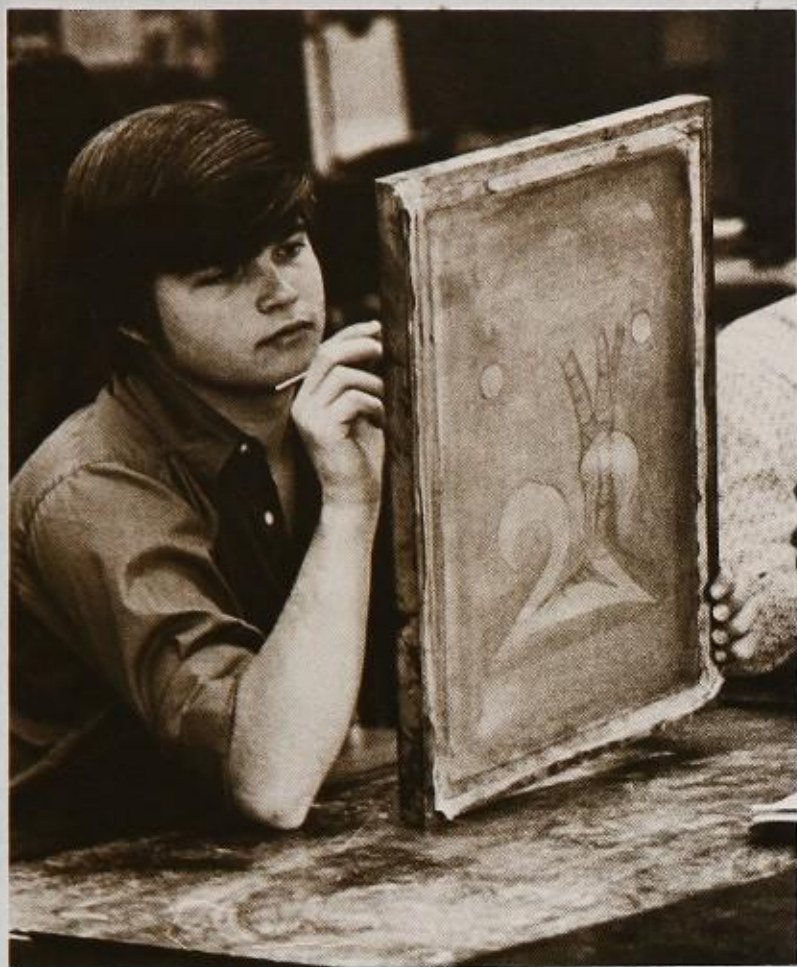

"I think I would increase the school spirit. There is too little of it and if we lose it and lose our sense of "belonging" the school becomes a prison for eight hours a day."

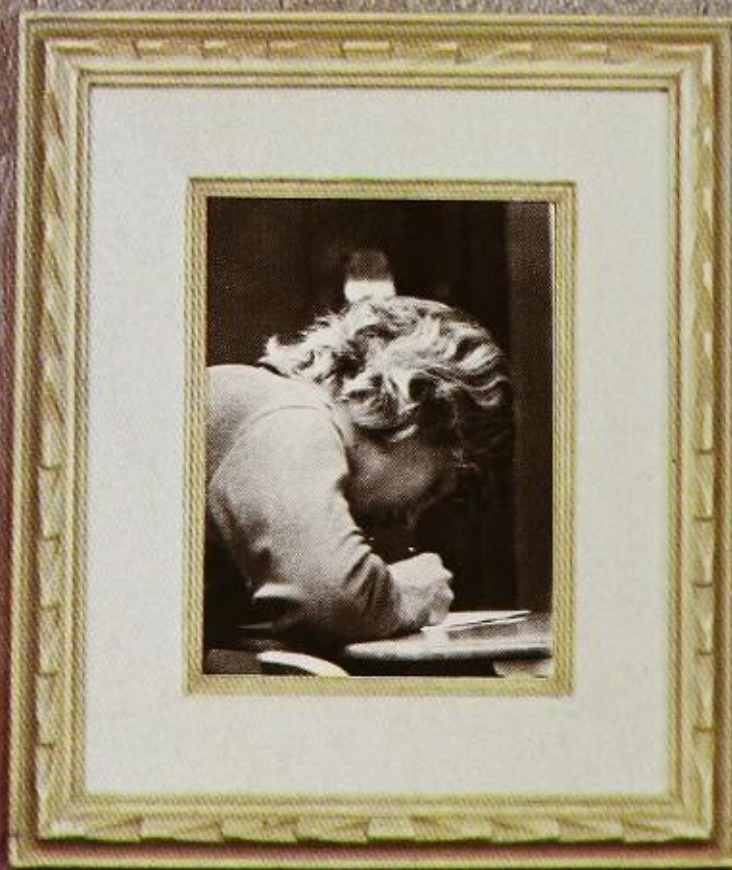

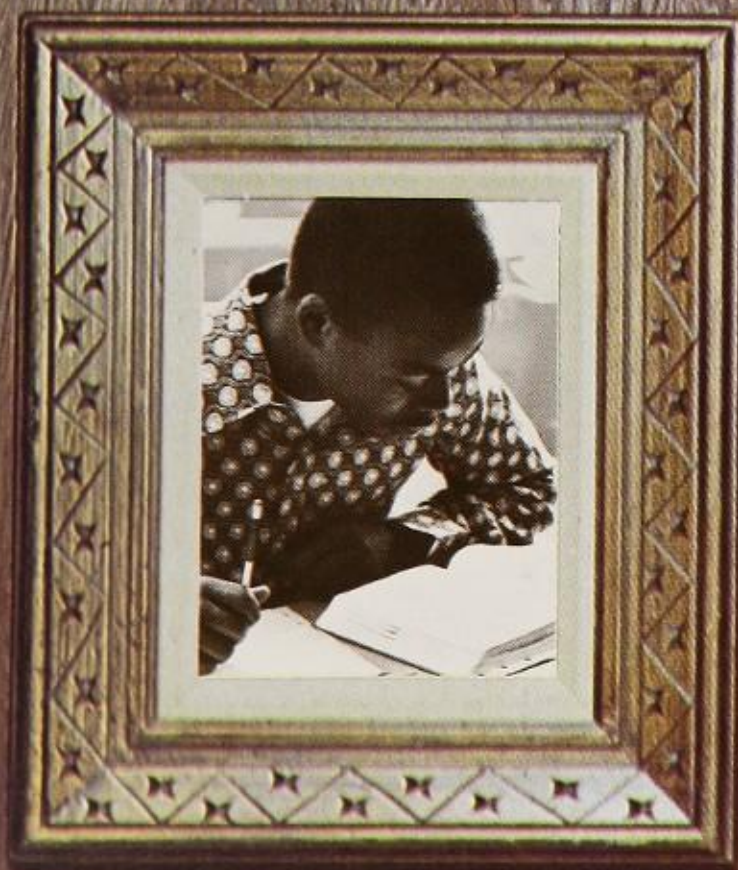

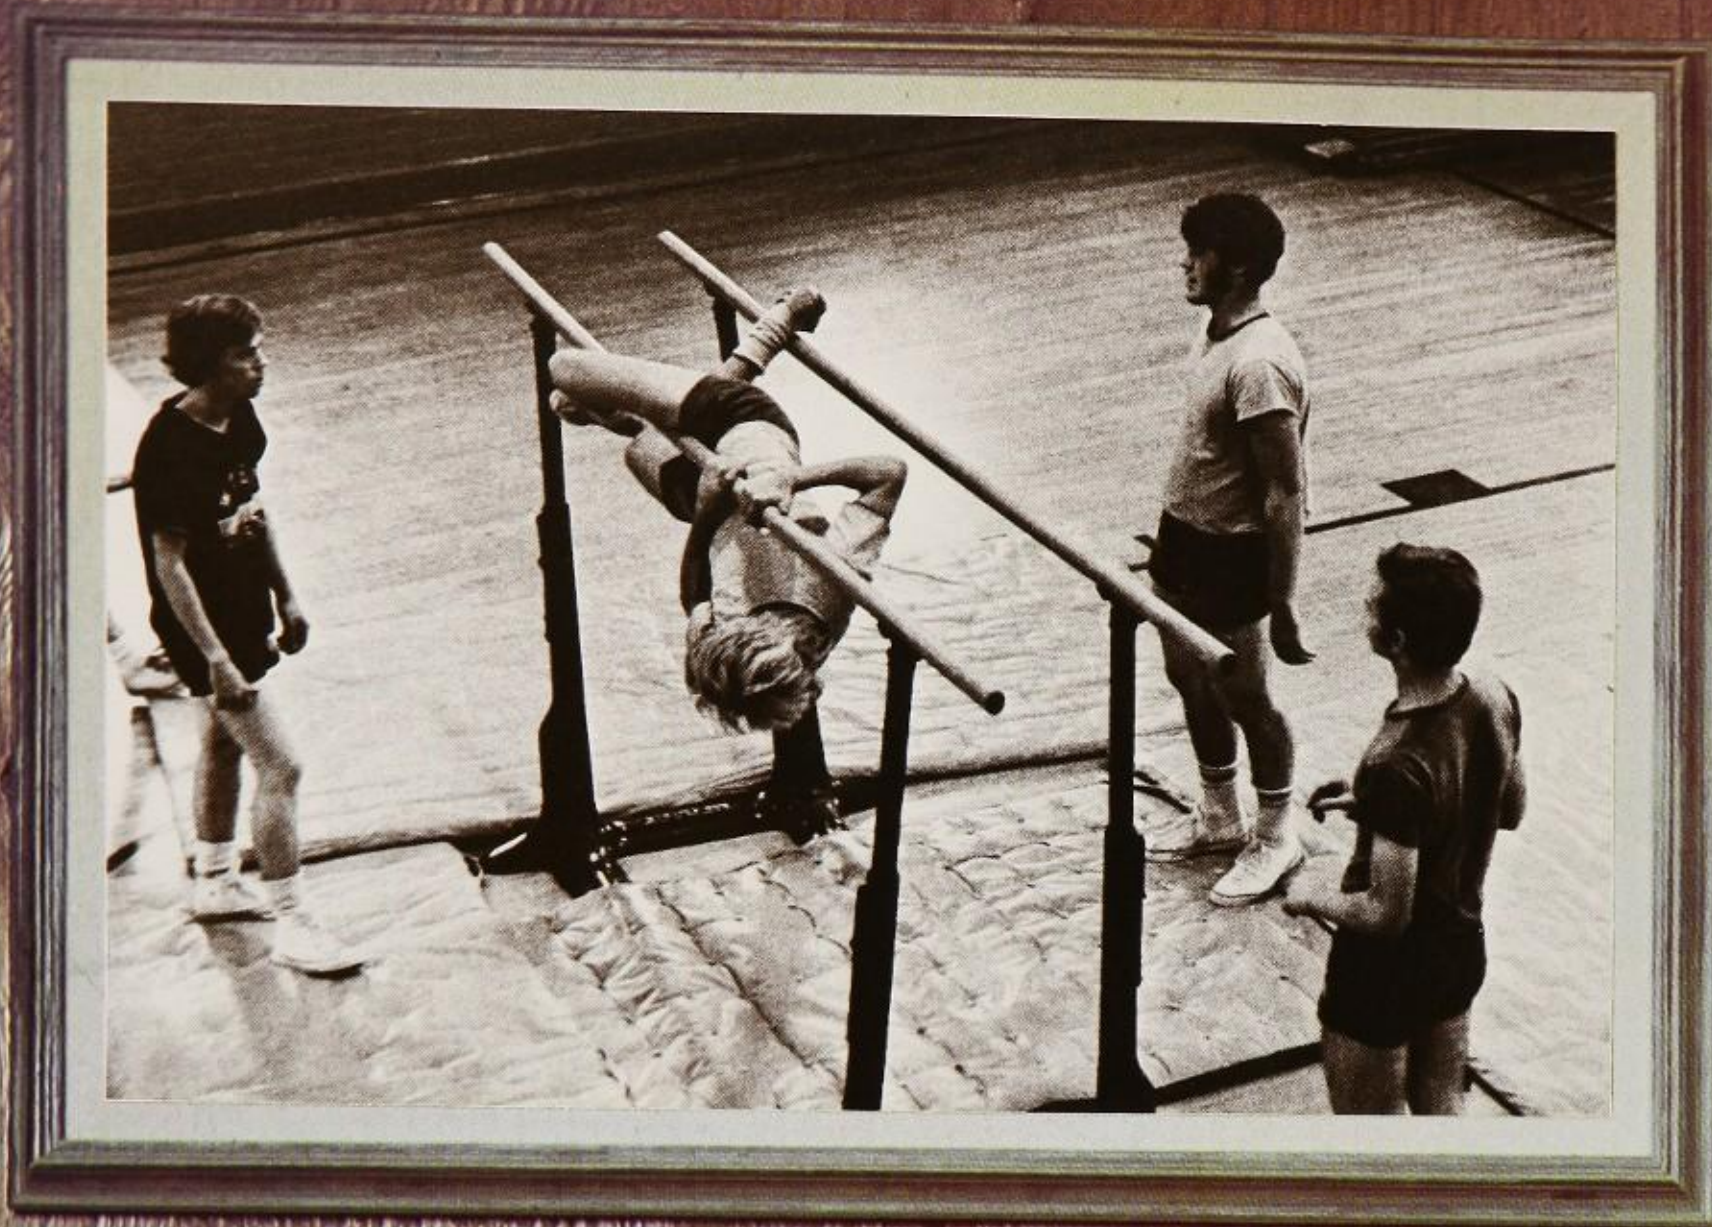

Dave Jensen '74

"I would put more emphasis on creating. Learning from within ourselves and developing our senses. All that we know comes from them, yet we get to school and forget how important that is." M. Gaziano

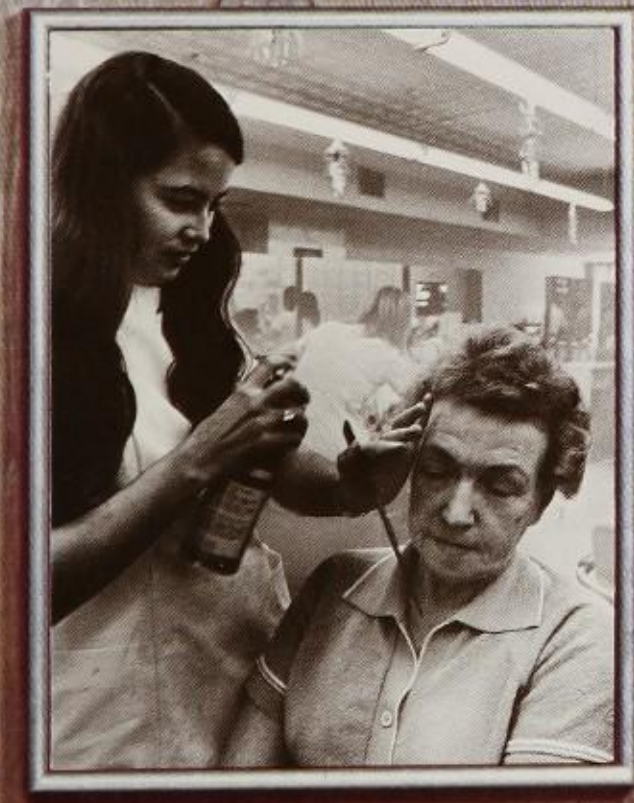

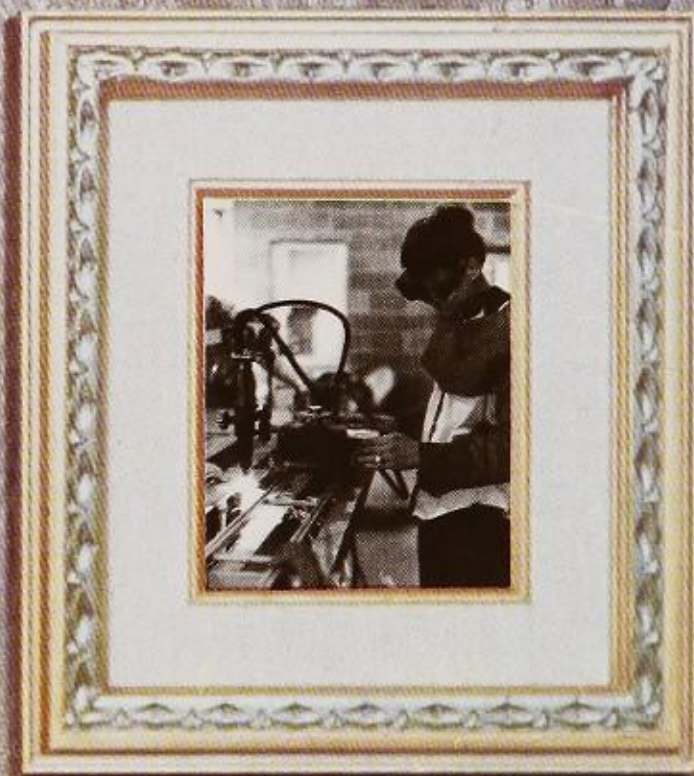

"I would change the whole learning system. The book and test technique that Waukegan uses is long out-dated. What we need is more involvement courses to develop our interests or possibly create new ones." K.S.

"I would change everyone's attitudes. People just don't care anymore. They are afraid to reach out and touch . . . to reveal themselves."

"Four years ago, 1,000 scared and skinny Freshmen found themselves in a whole new strange surrounding. A year later they were still scared and skinny, in a not so strange surrounding. Now, after three years, they are not so scared and skinny, but still afraid of what will come in the next year. Whether they will continue in school, or if they will find themselves in a new strange surrounding — the big and lonesome world." Brian Labus

"Many students of the class of '73 had excellent ideas on ways to change the school, but were afraid to voice their ideas or carry through with them . . . Students did not realize the power that they had as students. If just a minority of the students felt something should be done and carried it through, the change might have been put in effect." Allen Cone

"We are unique in that we are the centennial class of W.H.S." Dave Mc Kee

"It seems as though the class of '73 was the last of a diminishing breed. Of the four classes, our's alone still possessed an active interest in our school and fellow students." Kathy Fitzgerald

CLASS OFFICERS: Brian Labus, president; Kathy Fitzgerald, secretary; Allen Cone, treasurer; and Dave McKee, vice-president.

What is the most important thing you've learned about yourself while here?

"That I am nothing to anybody unless I am something to myself." Don Bailey

"How much responsibility I have and what I am capable of doing." Lisa Reasor

"In order to survive you must become fully aware of your own potential as well as that of the other people around you."

"I guess the most important is that all thru my life my teachers, friends, and parents have told me that I have great potential. Now that I am a senior, I wish I'd used it" R. Neumann

"That I have to be myself."

"Nothing about myself, but a lot about other people."

"Being a Jock isn't everything. Becoming interested with what I want for a future is worth more." Jerry Kennedy

Do you believe in student protest movements on campus or in high school? Why?

"No. School is a place to learn and protest distracts from learning."

"Yes. They notify people of the problems."

"No, because they interfere with those who didn't believe in them." Pat Gerards

"No. I believe constructive action achieves the purpose much better — protests are emotional."

"Yes, because if there's something you don't like, protesting might help change it."

Why do you feel a graduation ceremony is necessary?

"It makes the seniors feel they have reached their goal. It gives a good impression." Theresa Gibson Why will A) George McGovern, B) Richard Nixon, become president?

"I don't feel anything for either of them."

"George McGovern, because people are tired of Nixon and Agnew." T.D.

"I think George McGovern may become president because the polls cannot accurately predict a winner because of voter apathy."

"Nixon, because he's done what he promised he'd do in Viet Nam."

"Richard Nixon, because McGovern is too misunderstood by the middle aged voting class (as an extreme leftist) and I think many are "a-fraid" to elect him." Dan Harro

Are activities as important now as when you were a freshman? Why?

"No. When you are a freshman, the activities are more appealing. When you are a senior, they become less appealing because of other things you can do."

"No. I never liked them." Joel Jeffers

"Activities are always important because how can you learn or gain if you don't participate M. Hanau

"No, I'm too busy working to bother." Jim Reed

Why should seniors be allowed more privileges?

"We've gone through almost four years of hell and hard work and we deserve some privileges over the undergraduates."

"Anyone who can put up with cold showers, no clocks, and no bells for three years deserves it." Todd Diesner

"They shouldn't necessarily because half of them act like freshmen."

"Yes, after four years one should be an upperclassman."

"They are older and should know how to act and set examples for other students." Nerissa Smith

"He has helped with personal and educational problems." Earlene Wrice

Do you think abortions should be legalized in Illinois?

"There are a lot of contraceptives that are out now, and the girls today know more than enough about sex that there is no need for a girl to become pregnant. Abortions should only be legalized to the women who are raped." Julia Haganey

"No. I believe at the time of conception a fetus is a human being with a soul, a developing mind and body and should live no-matter what." Debi Brehmer

"Yes. If the parents don't want the kid, the kid would be better off dead anyway."

"No, because I feel sex is the thing today and everybody knows before they lay down, so there's a 50-50 chance if they don't, they don't have sense enough to use protection or something, tough stuff." Denise Williams

"Yes and no ... yes, if it is necessary, if the parents are on welfare or poverty stricken or if for some reason the mother can't have it, but if there is some senseless reason, then no." Julie Caldwell

"No, because a woman knows what she is doing. She should tell the male to use protection. Waiting until the baby is full and in the form of a real live human, is only murdering. A person who does this is a murderer and should be put away. They know that intercourse is a pleasure and what goes on in the dark should come out in the light ... part of life is to pay the price." Gloria Jean Gwinn

"Yes, if the girl doesn't want the baby and won't keep it why should she have to go through the trouble of having it. It's sure not the most fun thing in the world." Janet Holder

"No. It is not the doctors' right to kill a poor, innocent, unwanted child. No one person has this right. I think abortion is ok "ONLY" if it endangers the mother's life." Bill Shonefelt

CLASS OFFICERS: Pam Bartousek, Pres.; Judy Nicola, Post Prom chrm.; Peggy Merilos, Vice-pres.; Risa Mitchell, Treas.; Lori Carrison, Prom chrm.; Cheryl Macier, Sec.

"1973, this was the year for our class to get out and do something. Freshmen year we were new and unorganized. Sophomore year we were split in to two different campuses. This year, our Junior year, was the time for our class to get involved and really make something out of ourselves." Risa Mitchell

"The problem with our class was that too many kids said that they would help in the organization of things, but when the time came for some work to be done, the same people had to do it. If these people would stop complaining and start helping, our class could be a more unified one." Peggy Merilos

"Student activities were well divided. Everyone was given the chance to participate, but usually the same people came all the time." Cheri Macier

"Since this year's officers were chosen at the beginning of the year instead at the end of our Sophomore year, the Fish Fry wasn't as successful as it could have been. Although we only had a month to prepare for it, we had a lot of fun and tried to get the Junior class involved." Judy Nicola

"The Junior Class Prom turned out because some kids really worked and cared. We tried to get the majority opinion on most things so that there wouldn't be complaints." Lori Carrison

"Over the last two years I have had a better opportunity than any other student to see our class transform from an uninformed, divided class to a very progressive and united class. As I see goals in the future, I also see a class ready to achieve them." Pam Bartousek

Do you like having your whole class at the same campus?

"More people means more friends."

"Yes, you get to see all your old friends."

"What's the difference?" Rick Gonski

"You've got to be kidding." James Tarwood

"A who?" 74

"Not really. I liked having a smaller class."

"I really don't care." Carter Bell

"I feel we are more powerful now."

How would you define school spirit?

"There is no such thing. School spirit means kill your brother, spit on the little man, or hate the almighty administration."

"It's a spirit all right, like a ghost."

"In this school there is no school spirit — it's just an overcrowded detention hall."

"It is respect and honor towards the school and the students winning a certain activity." Joel Jonet

"Hearing a teacher cheer."

"Having a great amount of pride, something this school has none of."

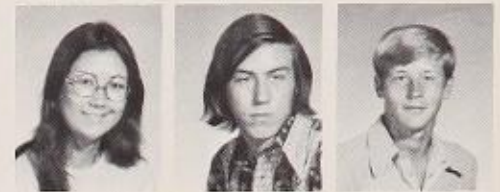

"Having all the kids show up at a game and cheering for their team."

"It's what you make it. If the kids that go out for sports didn't have anyone support them they might as well give up. Somebody has to care." Judy Wienke

Are you looking forward to the Car Wash, Prom, and other Junior activities?

"Yes, I have a dirty car."

"No, it's a rip off."

"You bet I am."

"Yes, they give students a chance to really have fun and get to know other students."

"Very much, because I enjoy all school activities."

"Yep, to all of them. Even if I don't go to Homecoming and Prom, I still want to help work on them, that's half the fun."

"No, most of those weekends I'm not at home anyway. I don't have a girl for Prom."

"No, these things are great but they're not the kind of things that interest me."

This year the Jr. Class Fish Fry offered carry-outs to the public. These girls made sure that every dinner included a scrumptious, but messy, piece of cake.

A long row of tables characterized the Victory St. mall. Students engaged in conversation or gobbled down the remnants of a 7-11 lunch.

What is a Senior hard-guy?

"A guy who's too good for juniors and too old for sophomores."

"A guy that is a senior and acts like a hot dog."

"A cool dude who doesn't go to classes but smacks everybody in the hallways."

"A jock."

Do you think your counselor has helped you?

"No, not all."

"He will when I have a chance to see him."

"Yes, I think Mr. Mallory is the best counselor yet."

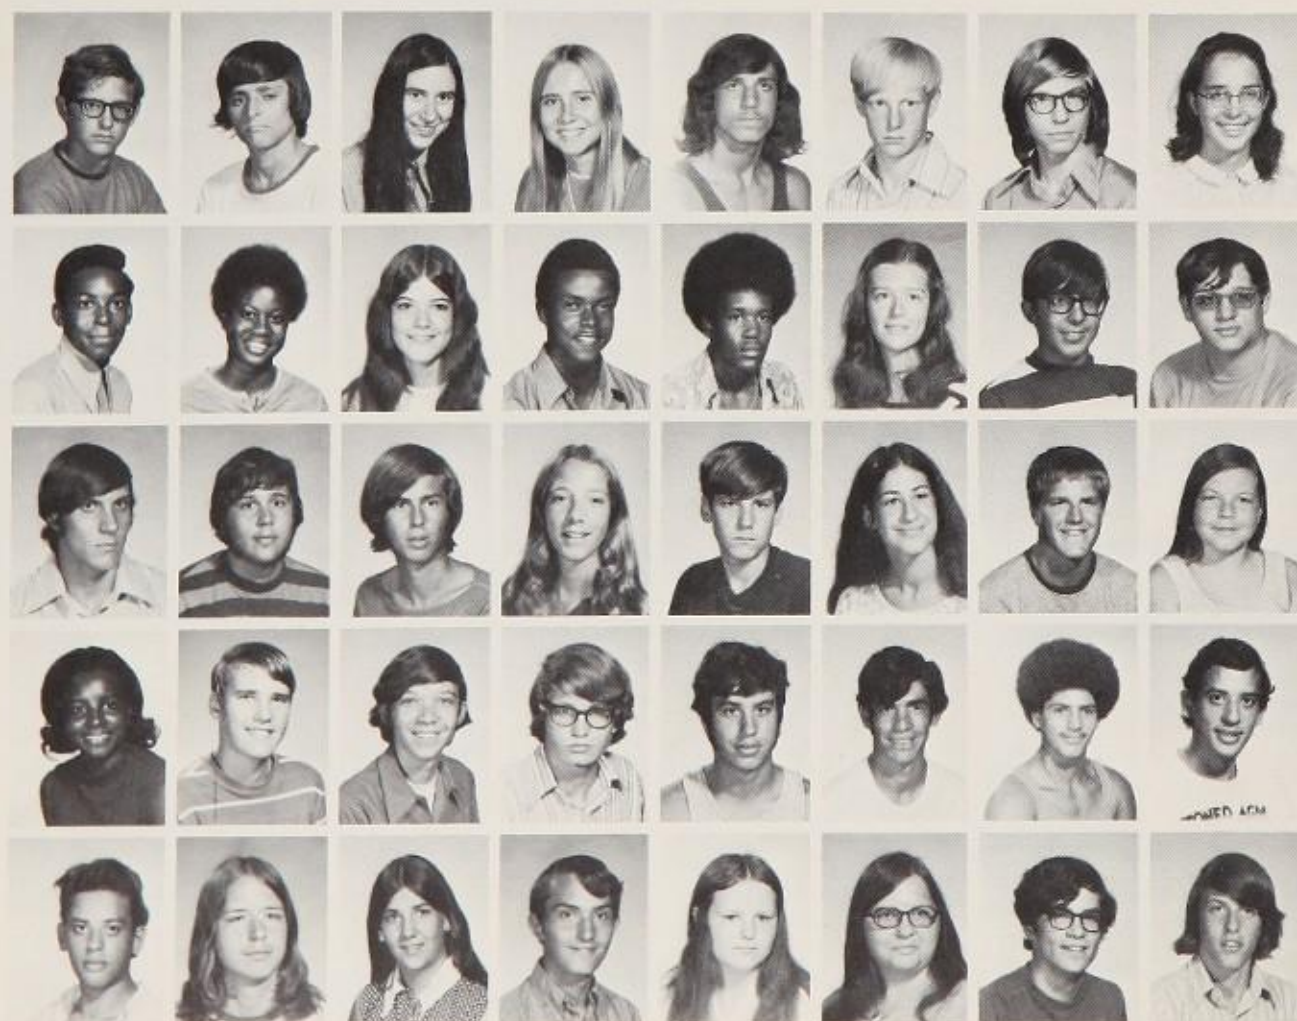

"Only when I need a question answered."

"This year he got me out of a very bad jam, as far as classes are concerned."

"No, he never talks to me. I don't know who he is."

"This year our class was divided between the two campuses, which separated us from many of our old friends. But we still got together to form high-spirited athletic teams." Steve Kaiser

"Being sophomores we took on more responsibility. We were more sure of ourselves since we had been around a year. Filling out passes wasn't so confusing. Old faces were recognized as we walked down the halls." Karen Meyers

"I liked being at East my sophomore year. There were more freedoms such as going out for lunch. Even though the older kids sometimes looked down on us, I still felt bigger than I really was." Charlie Sachs

"East and West class officers combined ideas for a great class party entitled "Bring Back the Fifties." Sophomores had a great time dancing, hearing, and living a day from a bygone era. The days when Elvis reigned and beach movies were big, set the stage for fun and nostalgia." Joe Kuderko

"A few of the advantages were that you got to meet older people with different ideas. You tend to grow up faster and become more mature with the older kids." Sonja Zellen

"By participating in the different clubs and activities I feel that the students really feel a part of the school." Annette Temp

"I felt that the sophomore officers at East don't help at all especially during the Sophomore Class Party and previous elections. The sophomores were split as if they are in two different schools. They want us to be separated instead of together." Gail Hilton

Do you think Sophomores should be allowed to attend the Junior Prom?

"Going to Prom doesn't really matter to me." Rob Carvis

"Sophomores should be able to attend if their date is a junior."

"Why not?"

"No, because we won't want sophomores at our prom when we are juniors."

"No. Because it's not fair to the juniors who waited this long for it. It should be for the Junior class." Margaret Uhlig

"I think they should be allowed because a lot of junior guys have sophomore girlfriends and would not go without them." Nancy Shisler

"Sophomores should not be allowed to attend the Junior Prom because I think the higher class deserves to have a dance to themselves."

At the Sophomore class party, "The 50's," this cager showed form, balance, and his belly button.

This art student finds that it takes time, patience, and a steady hand to draw the alphabet perfectly.

IF YOU COULD WISH FOR ANYTHING WHAT WOULD IT BE AND WHY?

"To be rich because I'm poor now."

"I could visit every place in the world and see every cool thing there is to see."

"That people could get along with other people, where their world wouldn't be more wars, just peace." Steve G.

"To go to heaven. I don't want to go to hell because it's hot there."

"That my senses would be stronger. I think that from using them and your powers of observation, you can have a better understanding of all life."

Skiping, tardiness, and smoking were the main reasons for inner school suspensions at West this year.

What are the advantages and the disadvantages of coming to East Campus your Sophomore year?

"Sometimes I feel like I don't belong." K. Barron

"It is bad because you're there for three years."

"Going to the south building, study hall, and up to ther." Robin Lovelace

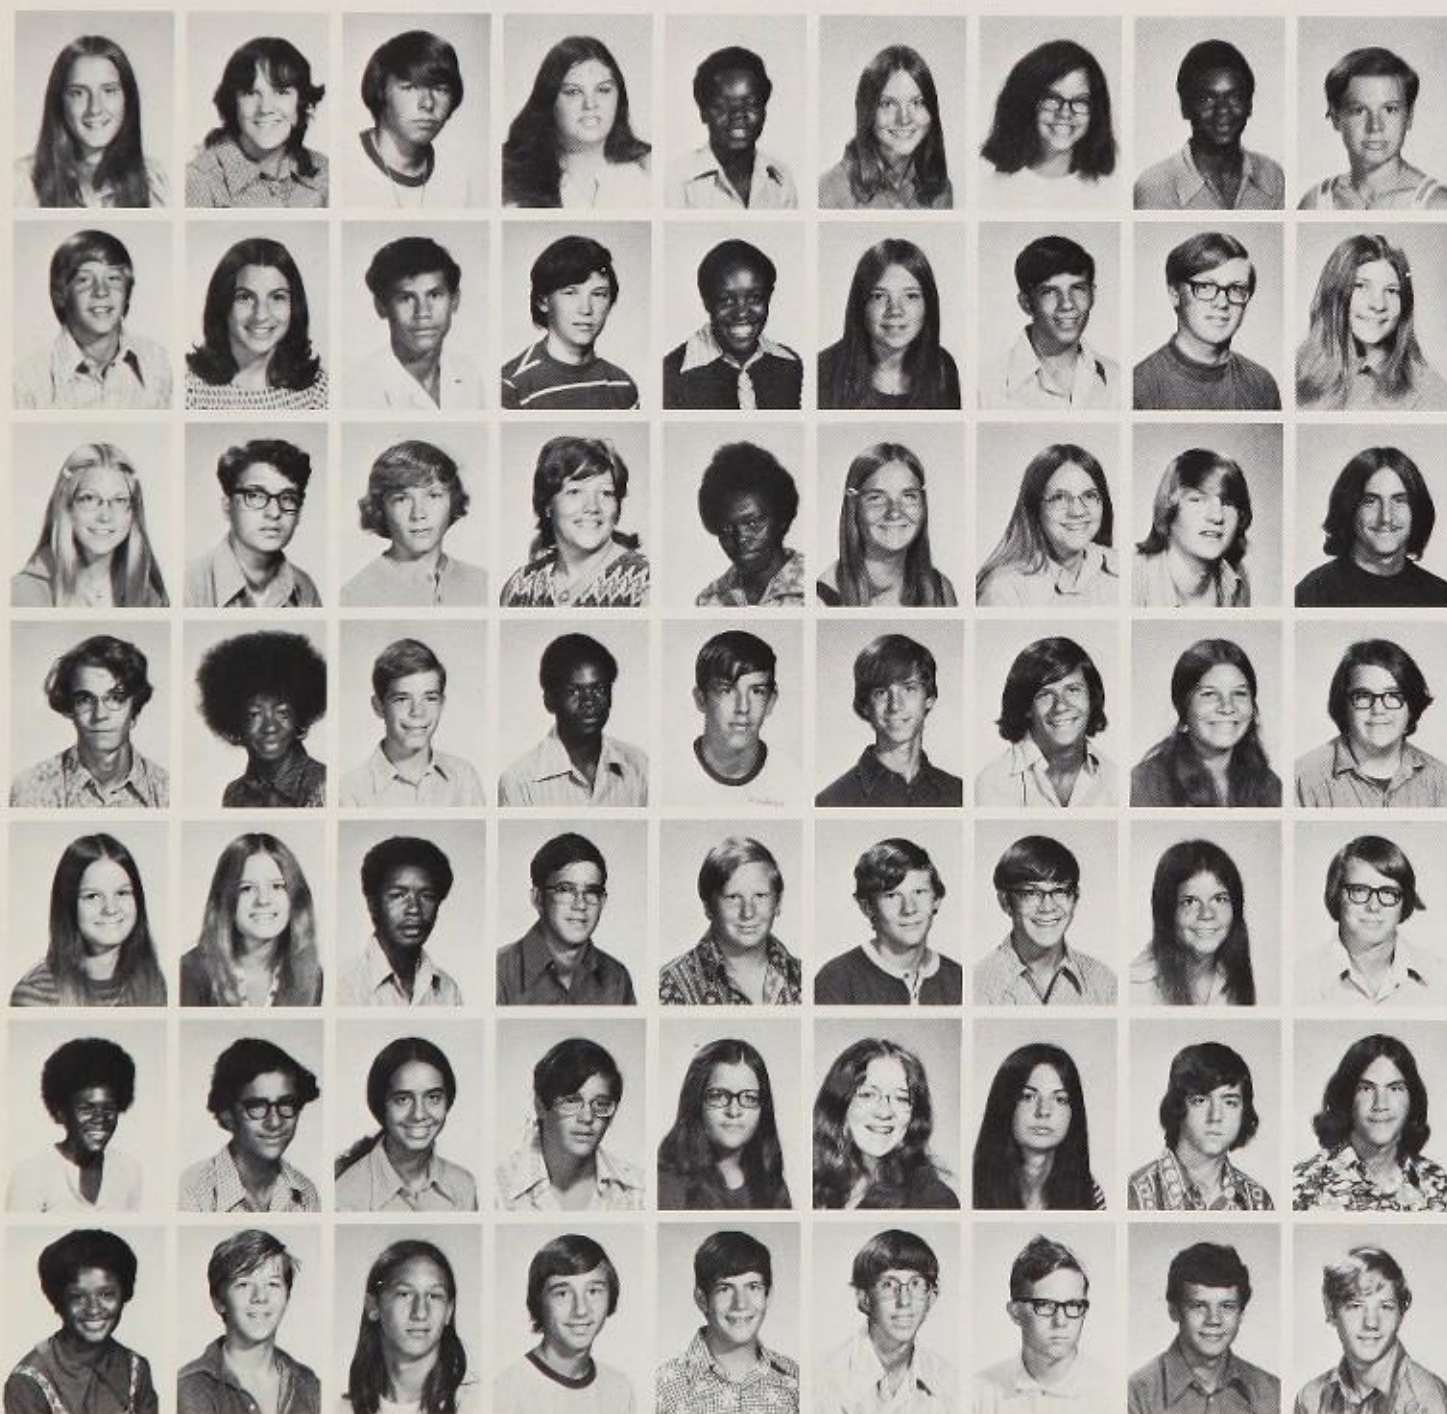

"A lot of your friends are still at West."

"Going to a strange and larger school, getting acquainted to another school with longer and more confusing halls. Also leaving many of your good friends at West." R. Staskiewicz

"You don't have to put up with the Freshman. Kids are more mature over here, and more of my friends are here."

"Once you know it you don't have to worry for the next three years because you know the school and where all the rooms are." Joe Cambell

"I like being at East this year because there are so many more kinds of people here than at West. We aren't forced to go along with the crowd. There are more opportunities to do different things. West was just like Jr. High." Linda Towns

What one thing would you change about our school, and why?

"I think the school is fine the way it is."

"I would make more sports that students could participate in but not competitively. Competition is good but when all the sports are competitive, it cancels out people who like sports but are not good enough to compete." Debbie Furo

"Exams, because they're too much trouble." Kathy Lynch

"I would change the picky grading of some teachers in certain classes."

The Sophomore Class Party consisted of movies, swimming, volleyball, and refreshments. Music was provided for those who wished to dance.

How can the recreational facilities be improved in Waukegan?

"They should put a field somewhere closer to the school."

"The only way the facilities will be improved is if people start caring a little more about the things that will help improvement." Karen Packman

"By building an indoor hockey rink, more swimming pools, and a facility for gymnastics." J. Pilotte

"I think Waukegan should put lights around baseball fields so more games could be played in the dark." Manuel

"Our facilities are good enough." D. Babicz

"By getting someplace for kids who have go-karts, mini-bikes, etc. to run them."

What do you think of enforcing a pass-fail system at Waukegan?

"I don't like it because it doesn't show how you are doing compared to the other students."
Robert Hoke

"You would try harder with the system we have now."

"Twittle bugs!"

"I don't like it. It's unfair to people who try just a little bit harder." Z.R.

"It's okay but you might not get in college." R. Brean

"I don't care as long as I pass."

"It wouldn't put so much pressure on us."

"There would be no honor roll with pass-fail."

The concepts of physical science don't make much sense to this West Campus student as she only listens with one ear.

"The biggest difference from Jr. high was the number of the kids at West. Also, at high school, classes were longer, meaning more time with one teacher. I didn't like that. As Freshmen, we got a better chance to compete in athletics since there were A, B, and C teams. We had many more extra-curricular activities." Bob Melius

"Freshmen year was the start of getting involved. Clubs, dances, gym jams, and games offered an outlet from the tons of homework we had. We're looking forward to being Sophomores — not the youngest anymore." Kathy Yotko

"The Freshmen class got together and worked on the class party. Also, we were unified in sports. The teams were backed up all the way." Diane Kaczmaryn

"It seems that we were treated like little kids at times. You need hall passes all the time. But with all the kids at West, what other solution was there?" Sandy Eliopoulos

CLASS OFFICERS: Diane Kaczmaryn, Sec.; Sandy Eliopoulos, Tres.; Bob Melius, Pres.; Kathy Yotko, Vice-Pres.

This student used a precision instrument to probe in his electricity assignment.

What are the changes coming from a Junior high to high school?

"The idea of being older, but still not the oldest."

"I like Junior high school more than I do this school."

"Probably the change in busing, because if I get hassled at one particular bus stop, I can change buses."

"It is bigger and much roomier ... " Don Spaulding

Do you think Freshmen should be allowed in more school activities?

"No, because then there's nothing to look forward to in your sophomore year."

"Yes, because the freshmen don't even have a chance to try out for anything."

"I don't care."

"If they want to, because if you subdue a Freshman, you might have a neurotic Senior on your hands in a few years."

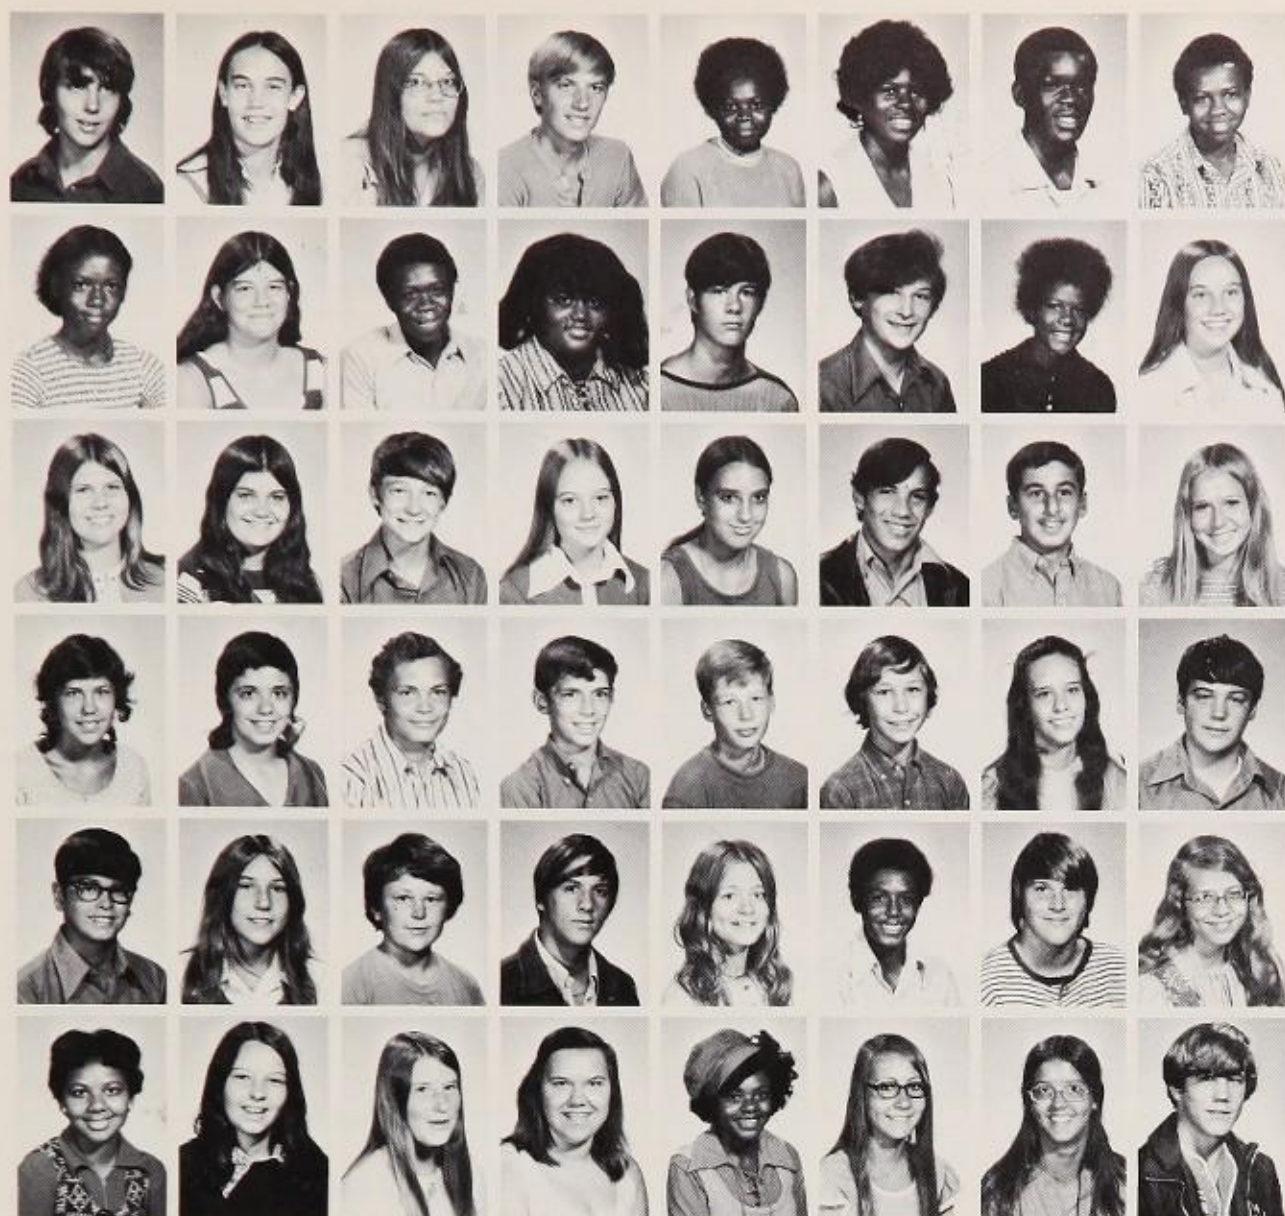

"No, we have too much homework to do."

"Who cares about those clubs?"

"Yes, because this is our school too." Allen Masopust

"Somebody asked me if I was a boy. I'm a girl"

"Having to read a letter to a class that came from a boy"

"I went and sat in a class I wasn't even supposed to be in" Cindi Davidson

"I was caught kissing Minnie" Mickey Mouse

"Showing a baseball card to the bus driver instead of my bus pass." Donna Rules

"I got my gysuit thrown out the window"

What do you think would be a good drug solution in WHS?

"There's really not too much you can do."

"Show all the kids in WHS an addict after he took a trip, then let everybody decide for themselves."

"To put the drugs in the Bar-B-Que in the lunch room."

"I really didn't know it was that bad."

"By trying to help the people who are on it." Rick Polum

"No one man can change a problem — it takes cooperation."

"Drugs are like a forest fire, if we can keep it from spreading, then maybe it will die out. The solution must lie within the kids."

BOARD OF EDUCATION

"I have been involved in education for several years and felt I was qualified to be a member of the Board of Education. Our duty is to represent the citizens and the students and develop a program that will benefit both." Mr. Filippo

"It was very meaningful for us to establish a unit school district. This creates a coordinated curriculum from kindergarten to the twelfth grade. My goal as a board member is to help the students. Today students are more intelligent than ever before and they want to learn more." Mr. Nixon

"I feel the type of education a city has is one of the most important facets a city can offer. As the educational facilities improve, the city is going to improve. I want to play a part in the improvement of Waukegan's education." Mr. Pickus

"The reason I wanted to be on the Board was to represent the views of the community and not my viewpoint. I believe in the past there have been some board members that had pet projects of their own." Mr. Cavanaugh

ADMINISTRATION

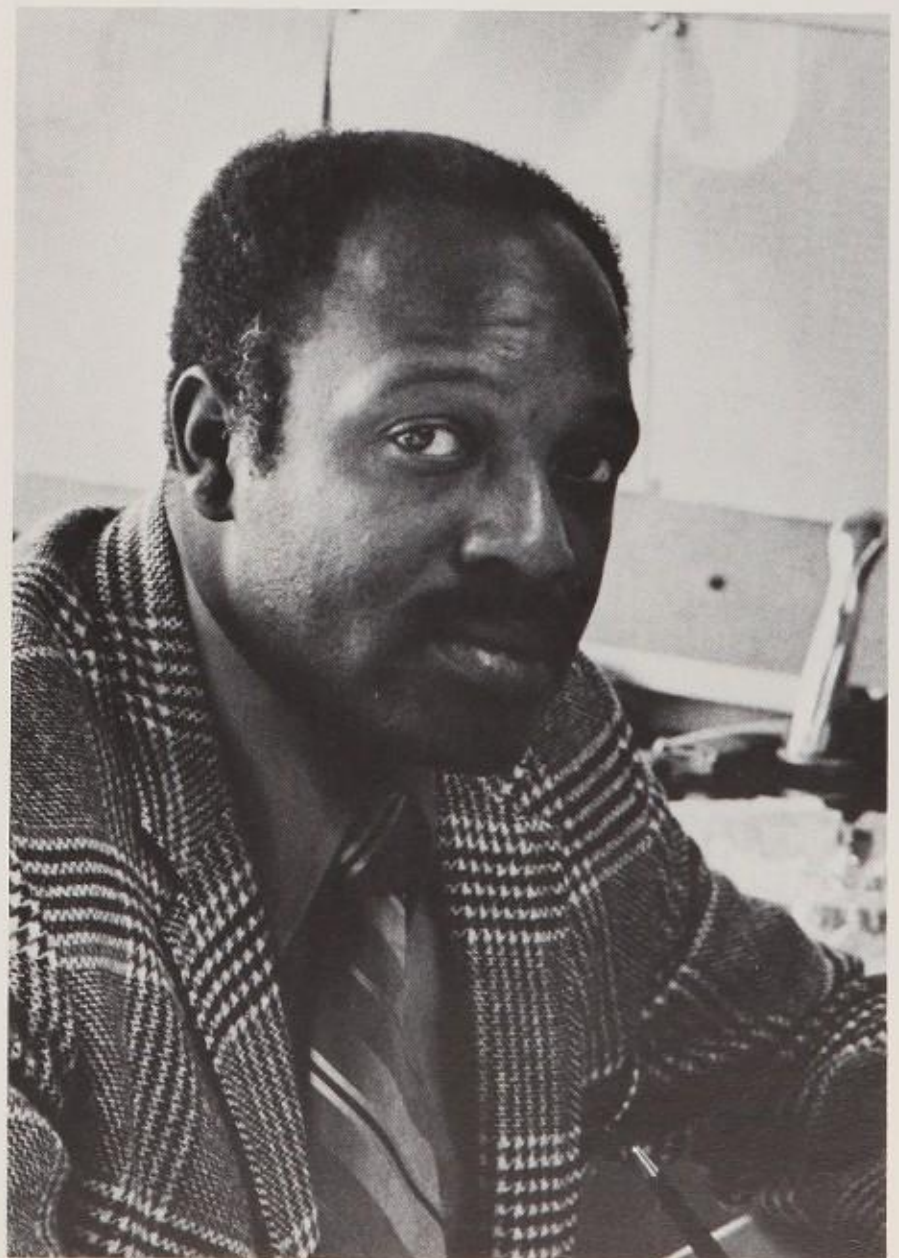

"Being a dean, I run the whole gambit of father, mother, guidance counselor, truant officer, and private detective. I try to help the students see themselves and what they're doing wrong now, not later." Mr. Knilans

"I am the building leader. Each day I have to relate with boys and girls, answer their questions and administer disciplinary actions." Mr. Greer

"I spend most of my time with attendance, taking calls, recording names, and keeping track of students going in and out of the building." M. Perucca

"I am mainly concerned with students who continually skip school and are flunking classes. A great many students at East aren't mature enough to attend an open campus." Mr. Alley

GUIDANCE

"Some days I wonder what I am doing in this crazy, frustrating business. But, most of the time I am pleased to be able to help the students in any way I can to make their paths into the future a little less confusing and a little smoother. Often I never really know if I have been a plus or a minus in the lives of my counselees — only they can answer that." Mr. Don Vanderverter

"I'm very happy with the system. Especially when the counselor "moves" with the student. The hardest adjustment for the counselor is getting to know the students in their freshman year." Mr. Hank Clark

"The job of the counselors is to meet any and all needs of the students, whether they be personal or educational in nature." Mr. Arnold Berendsen

In addition to working with the counselors, Mr. Berendsen also held student conferences, as this one with Judy Armour.

SPECIALIZED FACULTY

"Library work at East Campus is challenging, to say the least, and there is never a dull moment. Some days are good days and some days aren't, just as in any line of work. The staff works very hard to provide good service and adequate materials, but in a school this size, four people are nowhere near enough to do what really should be done, and our budget, like everyone else's, is not what it should be. Our group of student assistants is great! These kids do a fantastic job, for the most part, and the library really couldn't run without them." Mrs. Joanne R. Stewart

SPECIAL EDUCATION

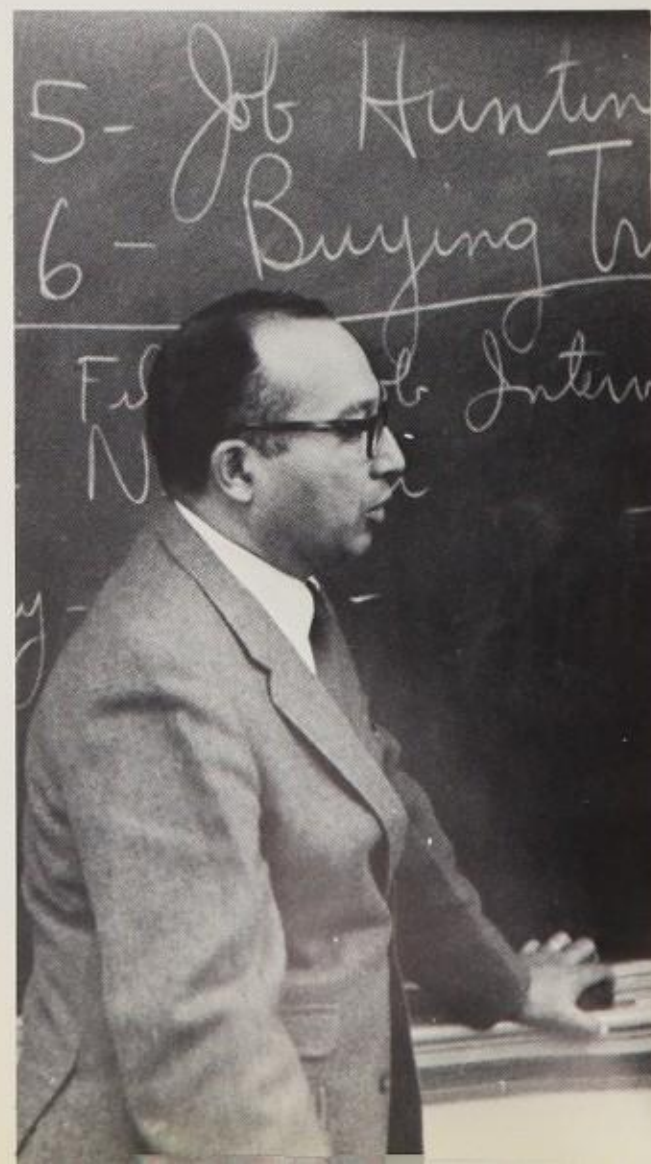

"We concentrate mainly on C.W.T., Co-operative Work Training. This helps the students with work experiences now and in the future. Mr. Smith

"Our main thrust is centered around the language, speech, and reading difficulties of the students."

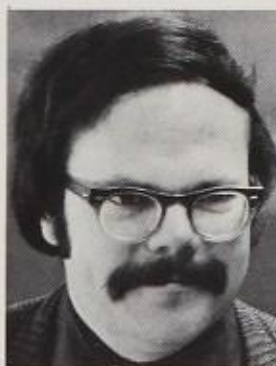

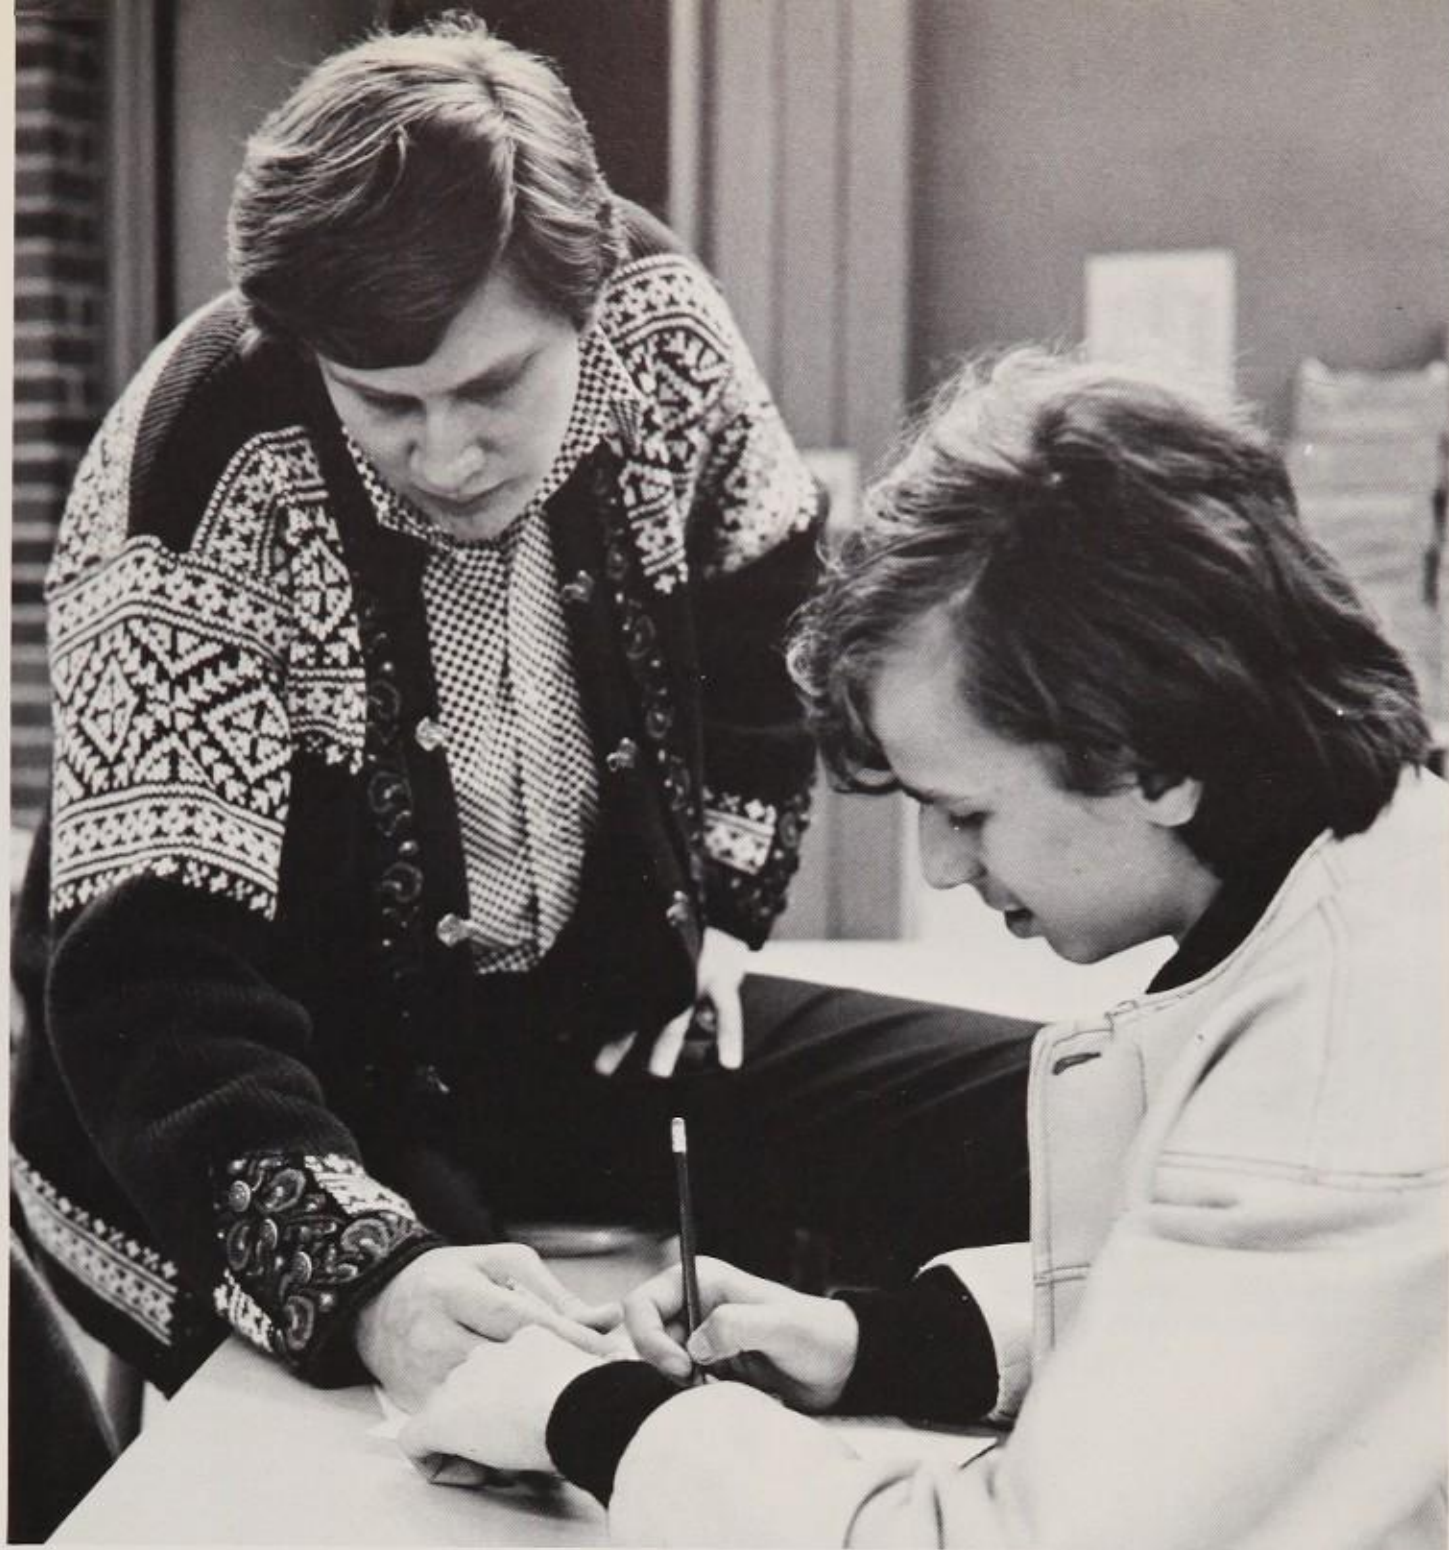

"I try to return to my students the responsibility for their own learning processes."
Mrs. Fletcher

"Special education branches off into many specific titles. There are students who work both in and out of school. C.W.T. is an organization to prepare students for jobs in the future. Some students are working at custodial, and secretarial work, others work as office helpers."

LANGUAGE ARTS

"This year sixty-two elective courses were offered. These nine week and semester courses let the students change teachers. This benefited many kids." Charles Leech

"I enjoyed teaching electives. It was more interesting for the kids and gave them a better opportunity to do what they were best in." Paul MacNamee

"Hopefully our foreign lang. students can understand, speak, read, and write their language, and appreciate its culture as well as their own." C. Nemeth

"Speech wasn't like any other class. You could get up and say what you wanted to, and everyone listened to you." Kimmer Olesak '74

"I feel I've been helpful and effective when I hear a student find some real meaning in the words he speaks or reads, and is then able to effectively communicate that same meaning to his audience, so that they may discover that same excitement and joy." Bill Devore

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

"The Vocational-Industrial Arts program was very strong this past year. Eight new staff members were added to take in an almost double increase in enrollment. New courses that have the student working and getting paid while receiving class credit are planning to be added in the future." Mr. Merv Pilotte

"Most of our allotted money was going to Auto-Mechanics and my Electricity was falling apart. There was so much stuff missing that it was almost impossible to carry on class." Tom Moore

"The Industrial-Arts program here was very good in comparison to where I've taught and other programs I've observed. The Freshman class sizes were O.K. but the Sophomore were far too large. We might have been able to use one or more rooms." Mr. Herron

MATHEMATICS

"In a scientific world such as we live in, mathematics is essential in one form or another. It is a secondary and universal language. To communicate on any scientific principle, mathematics is a necessity." Bill Grzanich

"This past year has been one of the most enjoyable ones I have taught. This year, the attitude of the students had greatly improved from previous years. When the student wants to learn, the teacher wants to teach them." Earl Allen

"When you have a great teacher, you don't think of math as just a course that you have to get out of the way." Bob Jesenovec

"Different levels of math classes are necessary as a key to how a student can reach success in mathematics. The class is not only more enjoyable to the student, it is more enjoyable to the teacher when everyone proceeds on their own." Jean Bryson

FINE ARTS

"Basically, Art 1 introduces the student to a variety of tools to work with."

"Art 2 does not follow as specific a curriculum as other classes. It is generally crafts such as weaving or macrame." Mr. Adee

"In the first semester of Sculpture and Painting, the students are under instruction and practice techniques in drawing, painting and sculpture. Given a chance to write up their own schedules, second semester students are free to develop projects using their particular field of talent." Mr. Misunas

"In classes such as orchestra and band, you have people on several different levels of ability. We must choose music that employs all these people at once."

"Chorus students learn to sing a variety of music."

Art IV includes ink and pencil drawings, opaque and transparent paintings, and model sculpturing. Ann Bowen adds a final touch to her oil painting.

SOCIAL SCIENCES

"Social Studies is a difficult course to take because there are no definite answers to the problems examined. This year a lot of changes were made to make Social Studies more meaningful. The elective courses established student participation and involvement." Fred Pottinger

"Many people feel that history is an irrelevant course, offering only a great display of talent for memory work. But, history is more than just memorizing. It is a study of the past's failures and weaknesses. From this, we can learn to make our world a better place to live in." Mark Bickham

"In my opinion we had a very good science department. Our facilities were adequate but could have been better. Enrollment depended on what the students wanted." Mr. Lester Larson

"Some of the science teachers here acted as though you should have known everything. They taught as if this were a college." Sue Kowalski

"A larger enrollment was not needed in the science department. Fifty percent of the students who take science achieve a minor. Science builds its own enrollment." Mr. James Henrickson

"We didn't take advantage of lab. We would have learned more with more experience." Karen Hurlbut

"A city-school program would have a good idea, but the kids just don't want to work for themselves. They would rather take orders than figure things out for themselves." Mrs. Judith Tabachnick

"The athletes of today are better than yesteryear, but the P.E. students are poorer." Mr. Johnson

"An elective P.E. program would be excellent, depending on what facilities are available."

"In the students of today there is an increased interest in P.E. after the development of the Girls Interscholastic Sports."

"In P.E. we have a basic curriculum in all sports, especially for the Freshmen classes." Miss Clark

ASSEMBLIES AND CONCERTS

"Homeroom assemblies were a change of pace."

"The homeroom assembly that I liked the most was the one about Outward Bound. I liked it because they had slides, films, and talked about many phases of the outward bound program. It was interesting and informative."

"James Irwin's assembly talk was inspirational and informative." Laura Vesanen

"I think that more people should attend the concerts. The groups, bands, orchestra, and choruses work very hard to get a good program, and then not many people show up. Mr. Gilkey knocks himself out trying to get the program presentable, and I'm sure he feels let down when there isn't a good crowd." D. Cantwell

"The strobe lights in "Foiled Again" were really freaky. I liked watching it because the shadows were effective." Sue Kaiser

"Seeing the show twice, I had an opportunity to judge the dances thoroughly. The members had several real good ideas and the show generally was pretty good." Willy

"I thought the theme, "Rhythmn is life you know", was worked in well with all the dance numbers. There was a good selection of music."

"The highlights of the Orchesis show for me were: Thoroly Modern Millie when I got to do my kicks and hang my mouth open, and sitting in the make-up room and watching the expressions on girls' faces when they walked out of their dressing room half naked." Wazoo

Ginny Roy's dance added a touch of ballet to the Orchesis show.

Raggedy Andy, Sue Bickham, used her costume to give the "Comedy Waltz" a humorous effect.

MILITARY BALL

"Next to Prom, Military Ball was one of the best dances there was. It was too bad that there weren't more people there, but most kids think that the dance is just for the cadets in R.O.T.C. Next year the dance should be more publicized especially the fact about the dance being semi-formal. Perhaps more people will then come." J. Kennedy

"I had a good time at the dance especially since I was a sponsor. It made the dance special." Anonymous

"Sometimes getting your hair done and putting a dress on is a lot of fun. It makes you feel like a lady." Margaret Gaziano

"Dances at the high school were seldom dances. Even at events like Homecoming and Prom, people seemed hesitant to let it go. They all seemed to be looking over their shoulders and wondering, "Is anybody watching?"

"I prefer the formal because there is more tradition to it." A.L.

"All the dances are nice in their own way. I like the formal dances because they are a little more special." L.G.

"I think formal dances are better because it makes something out of the dance. They aren't stupid like gym jams that no one cares about." K.B.

"I like the formal dances better than the informal because more people are there." T.J.

With the many weeks of hard work put into Prom, the night had finally arrived. Eddie Straight and his orchestra provided the music for an enchanting atmosphere.

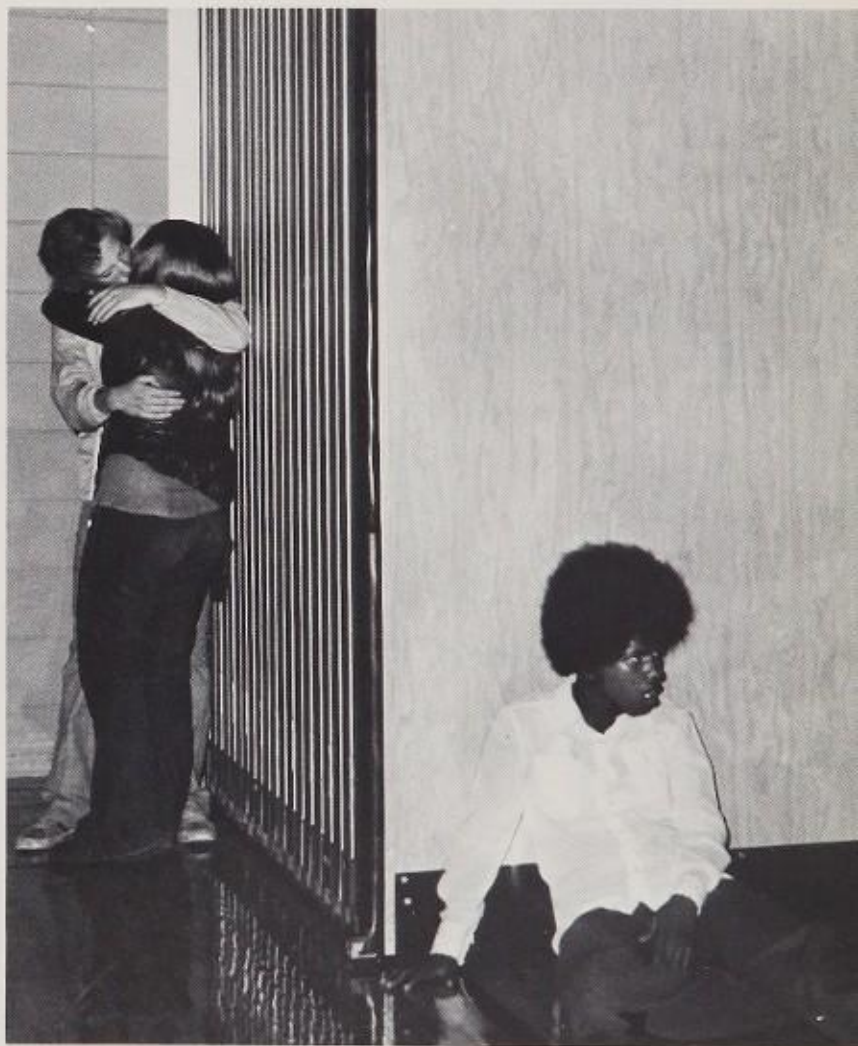

Barb Bradshaw exchanged the latest gossip with one of her friends, while the band took their break.

Greg Smith and Carol Alleman found a quicker, rowdier way to get through the dancers.

At the dances there was a variety of things to do, watch movies and play basketball. These girls enjoyed the dancing.

The many moods of the mixer were shown last fall next to the folding doors. Love, boredom, and indecision were emotions brought out by the music.

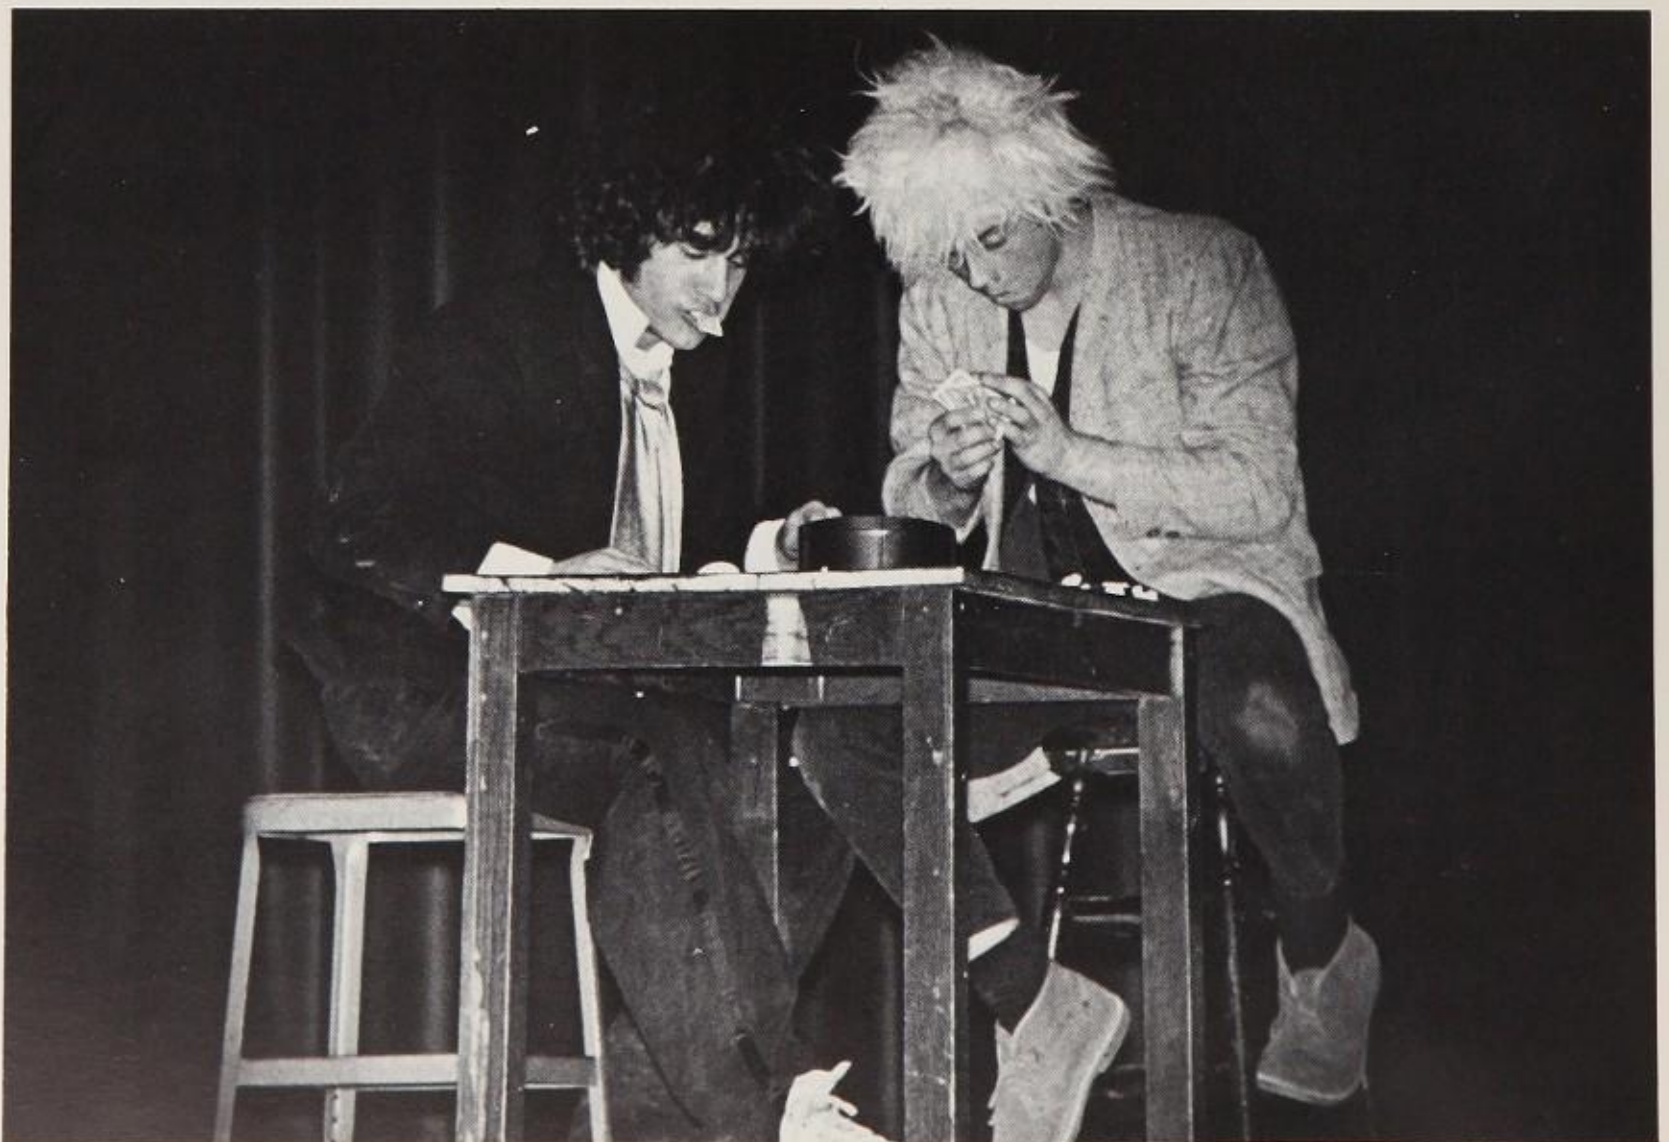

Kerrie Cunningham made one of the many between act announcements at the Student Council sponsored Talent Show.

A combination of music and comedy delighted the audience at this year's talent show, "A Star Is Born".

Is this a committee meeting for the School Board? Two wino card sharks who just lost their shorts? No, just the men from F.R.A.N.K., Steve Saam and Dave Lang.

TALENT SHOW

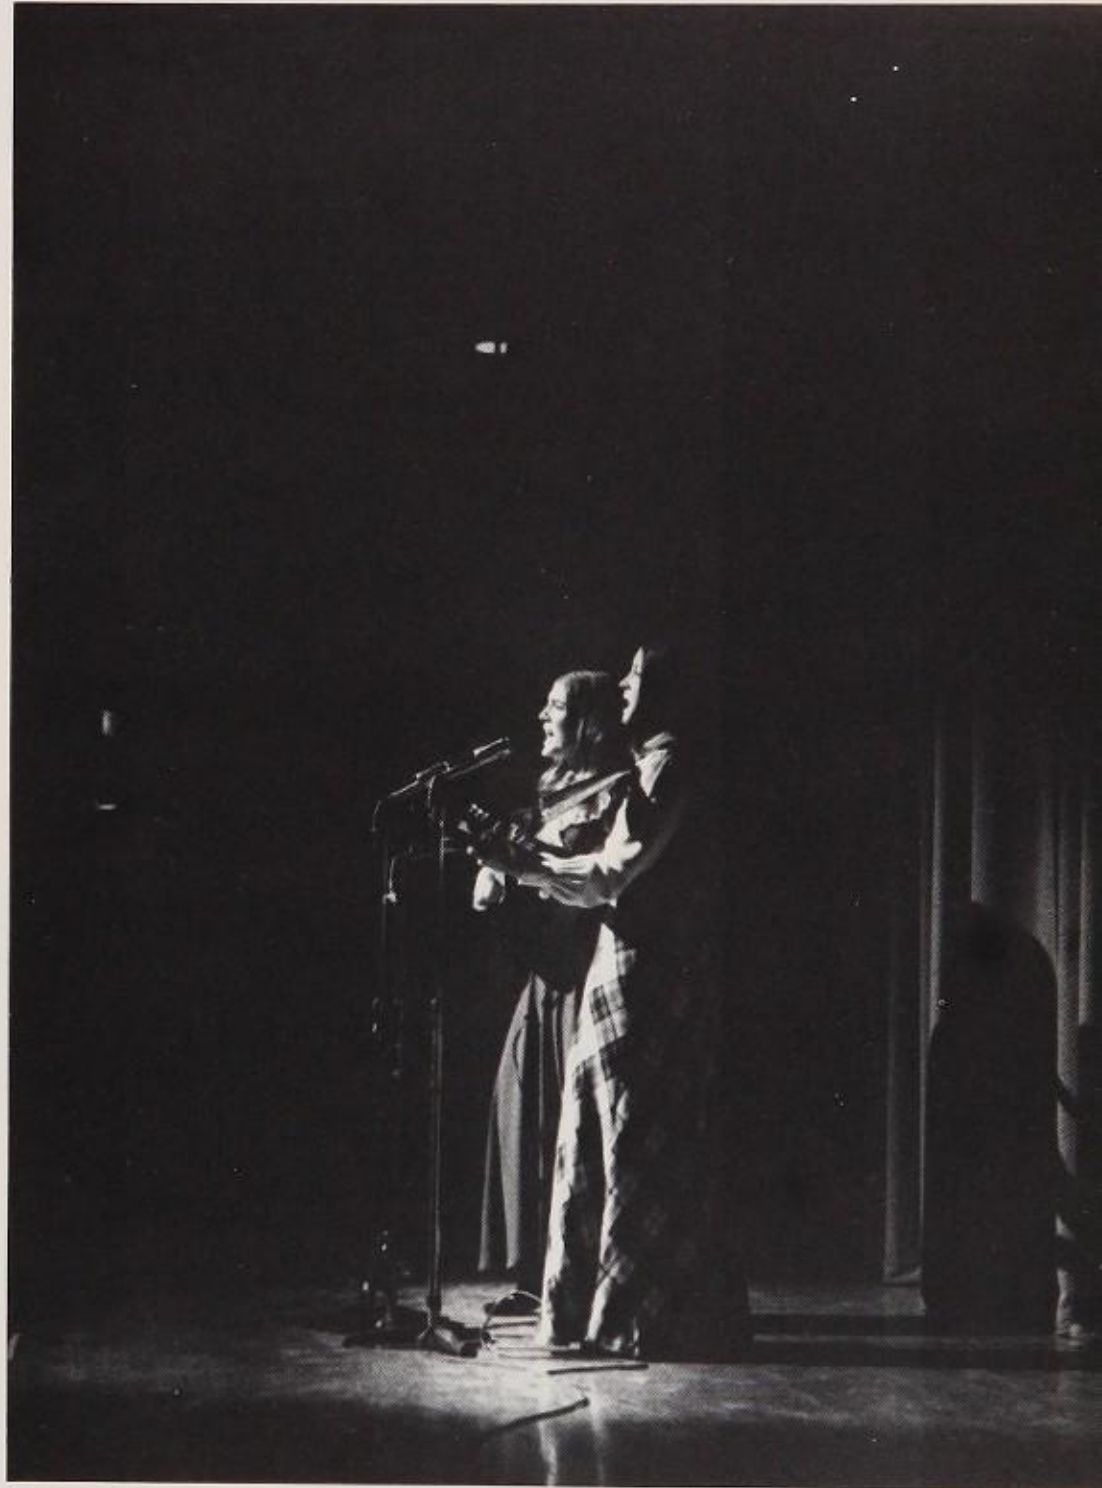

"It's good to see that there are still some students who care about the school to participate in the talent show."

"I thought last year's talent show was better because there was more comedy and I think the students would rather see that than serious acts." Jim Wolf

"This was my first year to see the talent show and I thought it was really good. I especially enjoyed the singing duo of Sue Fletcher and Lynn Ferruzzi." Sarah Snarski

"The show should have had more participants, but those who were involved did a good job. The adults probably enjoyed it as much or more than the students because of the piano and guitar solos. The arrangement of the acts was effective because after the show, everyone wanted more of F.R.A.N.K." Dan Memmen

All was quiet. The spotlight outlined two girls who would sing their way into the hearts of the audience. Sue Fletcher and Lynn Ferruzzi then began their version of Cat Stevens' "How Can I Tell You?"

Cathie Bleck and Jim Rosario found the steps leading to the dressing rooms of the auditorium to be a comfortable place to listen to the tunes of Sharon Delfs.

As was the case through most of the United States, Waukegan High School was caught up in the chess craze. Chess Clubs at both campuses flourished with Mr. Ludwig the sponsor at West, and Mr. Campbell at East. Brian Davis won an elimination tournament at West, while Jeff Barnett (brother of Kerry pictured) was generally considered the best at East.

WHS HIGHLIGHTS AND LOWLIGHTS

Suspension figures released March 31 show West lost 468 people at various times through the year while East suspended 420. Most of the penalties were handed out for smoking, fighting, or skipping.

In other punishment news, some Girls' PE teachers started handing out 10 cent fines for demerits.

Dave Ulicki was the first male officer in the history of Orchesis.

Connie Alston was voted "Super-Cheerleader" by all the members of the cheerleading squads.

The smallest attendance at a school dance this year came at the Student Council Christmas Dance. Only about 20 couples attended the charity affair.

Kim Liptak came in 1st in state for her shorthand taking as she scribbled an amazing 90 words a minute!

East Campus teachers Jean MacReady and Mel Goldberg both published works this year. Ms. MacReady's book of poetry "Three Bluebirds, Two Pink" is now on sale, while Mr. Goldberg's essay on ethnic literature appeared in the December issue of the English Journal.

Waukegan's East Campus was the site of the National AAU Freestyle Wrestling championships, with Larry Ten-Pas tournament chairman.

SENIORS LOOK BACK ON PROM

"Since Prom only came once, I felt very privileged to go. It gave me a grown-up feeling, since only juniors and seniors could attend." Mike Steplyk

"The one thing I remember most when I look back on Prom decorations is the emotion filled Friday before when we had to make everything fit together and after it did, the relief I felt — that all the work was finally done." Debbie Meyers

"The picnic was great for frisbies, baseball, and recovering from Prom." Robin Neumann

"No sooner did the excitement of Prom begin, when everything came to an end. But the memories are never lost. Especially when you went home to catch up on the sleep you lost, only to realize school was tomorrow." Sheree Stover

"My friends at school are just the greatest you could find. I have so much fun all the time. It sounds crazy, but I actually live for school. I'm in a section right now that is the last year, (like the senior year in America) and they are planning a class trip too Spain in the spring."

I really miss the holiday spirit of winter and the holiday season.

So far, all in all, I prefer America. How would you like to eat potatoes and bread at every meal, and occasionally eat RAW meat? The ice cream is so expensive that I've only had a spoonful once.

The guys here are really different. They only have one or two loves in their lives and then marry one of them. They really take everything seriously. It's ironic, though, how instead of greeting a person with a "hi", they kiss them on the cheeks 3 times!

I remember when I first came here I thought to myself, "I don't ever want to change. I'm already happy here." Finally something good has happened and there's no question about whether this family is good or not."

AFS EXCHANGE STUDENTS

"Waukegan High School? It was quite different from my French high school in Marseilles. At first I had some difficulties getting used to the new way of life, to this new culture. I will always remember the year I spent here. I had the chance to meet a lot of people, exchange ideas with them and learn a lot about the United States.

When I am back in France, I shall think of WHS students, remembering the warmth and friendliness they showed me.

I feel that I can now understand people better. My year in the USA was a time of growing up and learning about others."

Jacqueline Bourdet

While saying goodbye to a close friend, AFS exchange student, Pia Granholm prepared for her trip to Liege, Belgium.

DAILY LIFE

"I don't mind my schedule, but I'd like to make the classes shorter." B.A.S.

Assemblies and special schedules are something different. They make the day go faster and seem less boring." P.A.

"My classes sort of make me nauseous. The nine week electives aren't long enough to cover any material in depth. If I were superintendent, I'd like to eliminate about 3,000 students." M.S.

"We need more interesting teachers. Some of the electives should be year courses. You can't really learn anything in nine weeks." Seedy

"We should put in a radio station that would transmit into the cafeteria."

"Why don't we do away with mandatory study halls?"

"I would like to see a shorter school day. P.E. and study hall shouldn't be mandatory for students who carry a "B" average."

"Every day is different at Waukegan. Some are boring and some exciting." Mario Waukegan's teachers and their families picketed to express their discontent with contract negotiations.

As the sounds around ceased to interest her, Alice Emerick centered her concentration on a hang-nail.

Many students complained of cafeteria food, but Danny Thomas found a solution in the annex, an ice cream bar.

The PomPon girls brightened up most home basketball and football games with their performance, which included some good leg-shots.

One of the projects of Student Council this year was the installment of vending machines at both campuses. They provided the students with candy, potato chips, and pop.

These wide-awake students found a few minutes before the 8:45 bell to sit and anticipate the coming day of school.

Alphonso Rice, Gary Stankovitch, and Ron Brandon prove that too many cooks spoil the soup during Boys' Foods. This course was offered to Jr. and Sr. boys who wished to master the art of cooking.

AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE; WEST

"In my opinion, AFS is one of the most functional organizations at Waukegan High School. By that I mean this club offers the students the best educational experiences anyone could offer them. I don't understand why more students aren't interested."

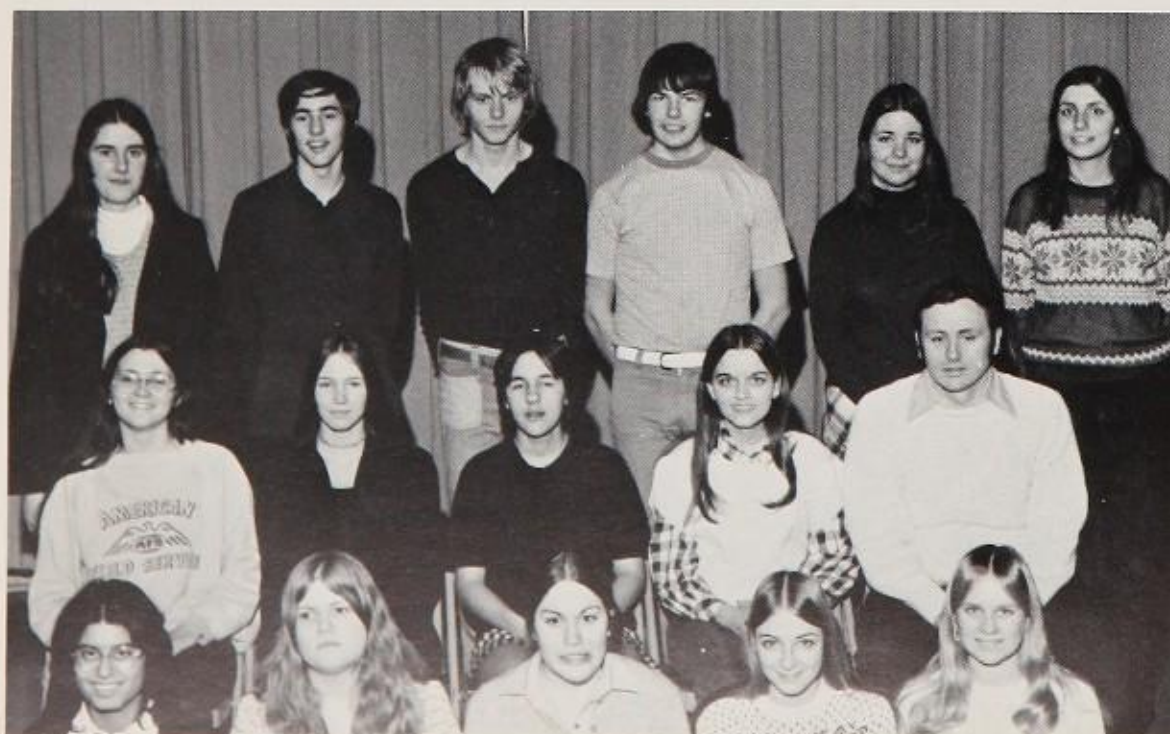

"To me, the greatest part of a club like AFS is the opportunity to not only learn about other countries and their languages, but to go there and see them."

AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE; EAST

"I wish more kids knew about AFS and that the community was more aware of it."

"I'd like to see a greater understanding achieved between students of different societies. I think a foreign exchange student is very important. The problem is, most people aren't aware that there is such a program as AFS. Our whole concept is to bridge the gap between cultures. AFS is open to all students."

NATIONAL JUNIOR HONOR SOCIETY

"I didn't work toward the idea of entering National Junior Honor Society, but when I was admitted it made all studying seem worthwhile."

"N. J. H. S. should participate in more school activities."

"National Junior Honor Society is more or less an incentive. It helps you see where you stand among thousands of other students."

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

"The qualifications for National Honor Society are scholarship, referring to your grade point average, leadership in clubs and other activities, character, and service to the school."

"Every club has it's purpose. National Honor Society is more or less an intellectual group that can use the club as an escape for their creativity."
E. M.

Steve Yaffe conferred with Liz Snarski on the plans for the student exchange program.

Sue Stritar and Liz Snarski listened attentively to a new idea brought up at a social board meeting.

STUDENT COUNCIL EAST

"The purpose of the student council as a whole (both political committee and social board) was to try to give service to the student body, but as the power structure was set up then it was very hard to get needed things done." Jon Lyyski

"I found out this year that student council no longer speaks to or for the students." Jim Wisuri

"The purpose of the student council was for the betterment of the students. Student council had been split into a political and social committee. As a member of the social board, I felt we tried to coordinate the school's social functions." Liz Snarski

STUDENT COUNCIL WEST

"The purpose of the Student Council is to find ways for communication and representation between the student body and the faculty. This year we have accomplished a lot, for example, we've made it possible to have Coke machines for the cafeteria."

Becky Kulmala

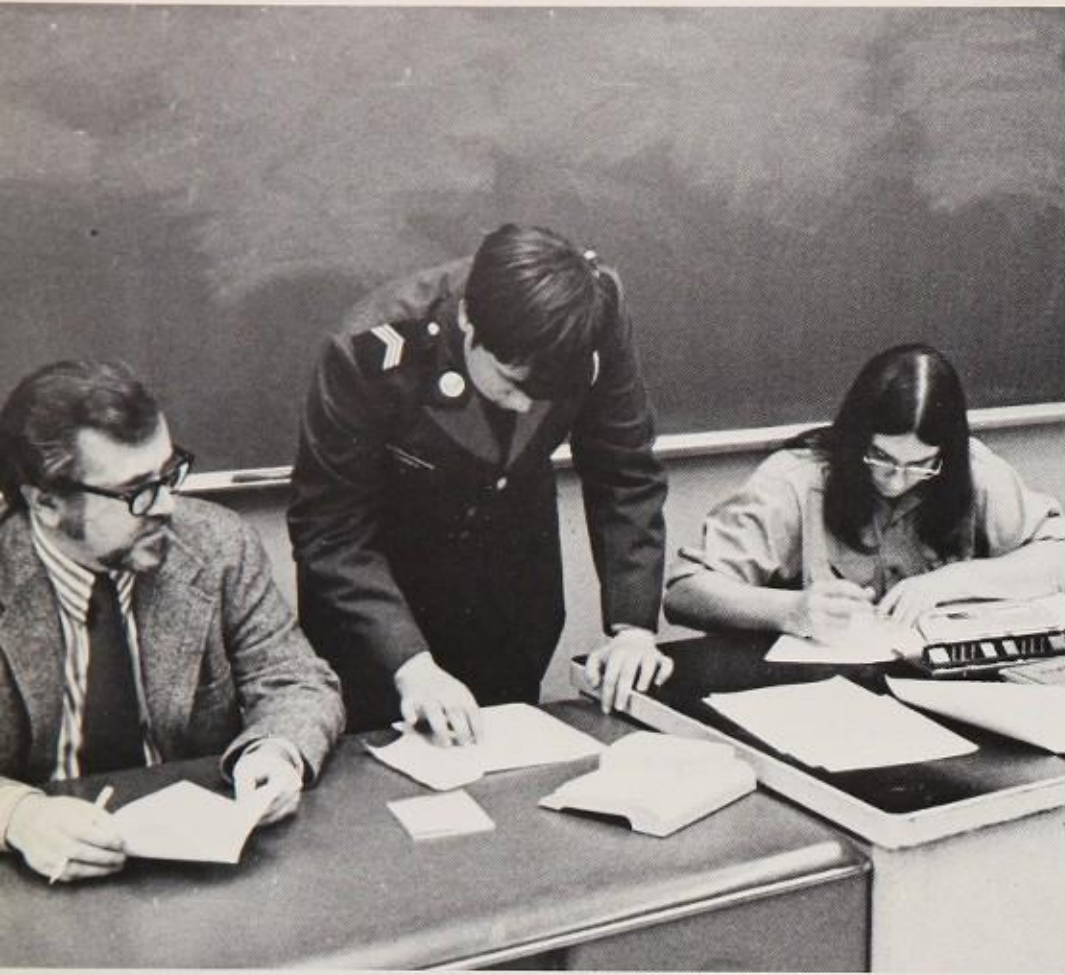

"West Campus Student Council as a whole is working together pretty well. It has been operating through the student body to present problems and to discuss them with the administration, problems such as tension. We have differences in ideas but we can usually work them out." Kim Dittmer

Opting for the traditional in their Rec Night booth was West Campus Student Council as they tried to lure people into guessing how many pieces of candy were in the jar.

These two representatives of Student Council talk over an item brought up at the last meeting.

The "W" World business and advertising managers consult Mr. Yoggerst whenever a problem which they can't handle arises.

W WORLD

"It seemed that after working hard on stories the general opinion of the paper was very low."
Kathy Shields

"It's a good class because you get to meet a lot of people. I liked reading the articles before they were edited." Nanette Boryc

"More people knew you when your name was on an article in the paper." Clayton Cox

"The newspaper would be better if more writers would make an attempt to get interesting stories. A few people would just sit in class. The sports writers covered games on weekends and had nothing to do for the rest of the week. Sometimes it was necessary to come to class, but most of the time it wasn't." Bill Neumann

ANNUAL W

"In spite of all the disagreements, confusion, darkroom fatigue, and sometimes total chaos, the 1973 Photo staff pulled through with some damn good work throughout this year. We probably had the best photographers the Annual W ever had." Photo Staff

"This page, along with the other 275 pages, was designed by the production staff. We spent many hours alphabetizing student pictures and gathering information for the index." Production Staff

"If we could find the words to express our thoughts about working on the Annual, they'd probably be censored. Getting quotes from students and writing captions wasn't easy, yet we always managed to finish everything with time to goof around." Literary Staff

LITERARY CLUB

"The reason that I'm in Literary Club is that I like to write and read what others write. Parchment, one of our projects, is very worthwhile to work on. It made me realize that even Waukegan High School has talent." Diane Renouf

"Literary Club has proved to be a club where the work pays off at the end of the year, when Parchment is finished. We had a rather large club this year (compared to other years). I don't know if I'll join next year though, because it seems that sometimes I didn't have time to join in all of the activities of the past year." '74

SPANISH CLUB

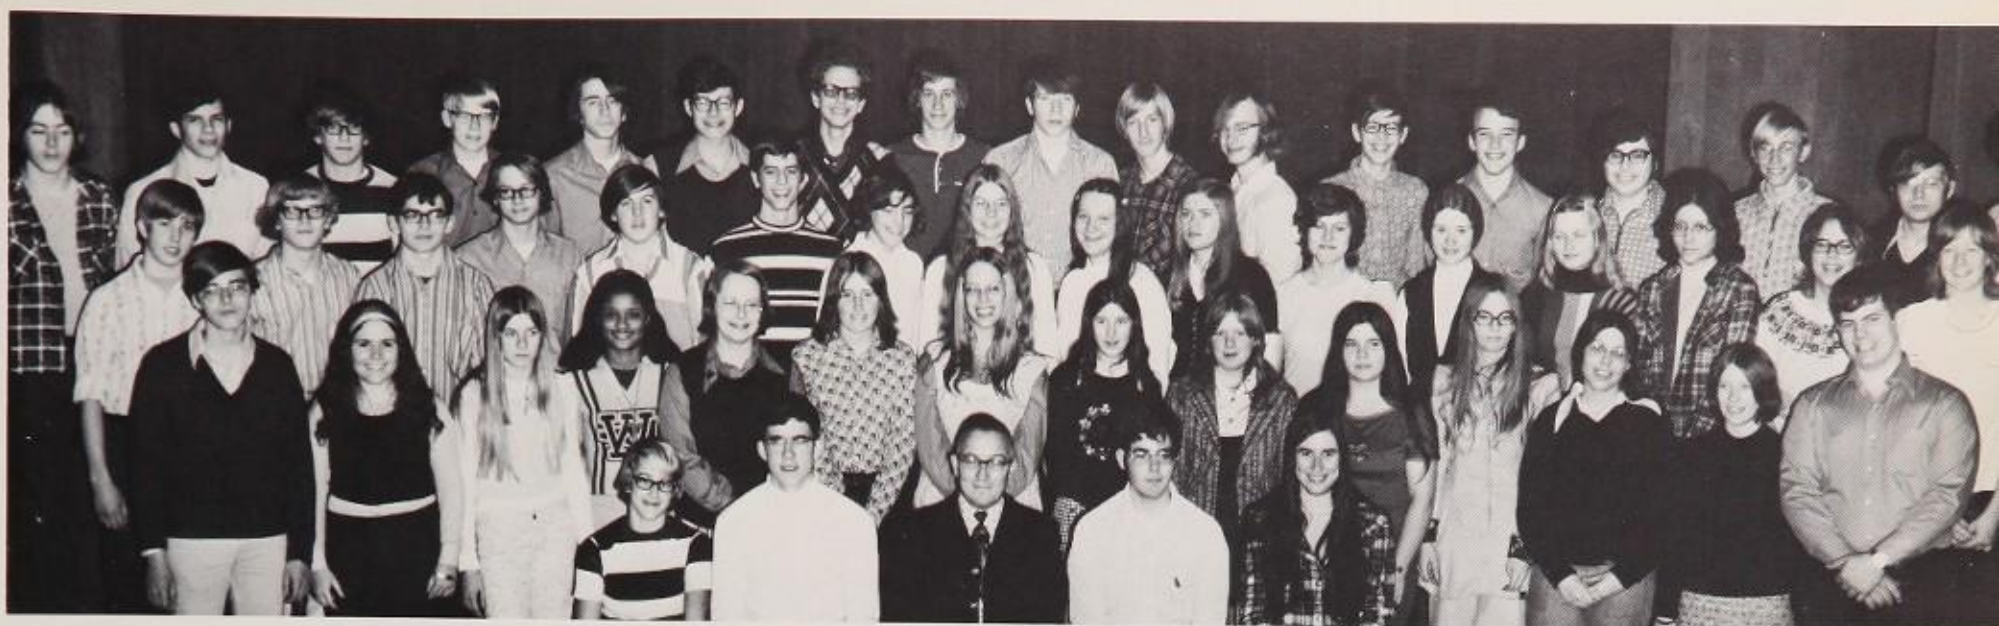

"I enjoyed Spanish Club because I like to speak Spanish. West Campus held the only Spanish Club this year." D. Gonzalez

"We tried to add more members to the club, but less people seemed interested. Since there was no Spanish Club at East Campus this year, we, at West, had to establish a name for ourselves. Our activities were limited, but we still had fun." R.P.

"Este ano, el club de espanol fue muy interesante. I like extra-curricular activities and Spanish Club was one of them I enjoyed the most." '75

GERMAN CLUB

"We learned many German customs, have seen how to celebrate different holidays, and we have also had German people come to talk to us. I joined because I come from a German background, and my friends who were in it last year said it was fun." Mark Biller

"The activities of this year's German Club included going to Oktoberfest, having a hayride, planning a Christmas party, and visiting the brewery. We also formed a German club choir and a band." Steven Smith

"I joined because I'm interested in Germany as a whole and the purpose of the German Club was to get together all those people interested in the German culture and language." Donald Zinger

German Club's Stalag '72 was a good way to get back at your friends and enemies. The booth grossed the highest income at Rec. Nite.

An exhausting hay ride called for plenty of refreshments to quench the hunger and thirst of these German Club members.

JUNIOR CLASSICAL LEAGUE

"I have this terrific urge to be different, so I joined Latin Club."

"We built a small float for homecoming."

"At Rec. Night, we had a sponge throw. It seemed to be quite popular."

"Every Easter we put together a fruit basket for at least one less fortunate family."

"The kids seemed apathetic when it came to outside activities."

"We all love Latin so much." Officers

MASQUE AND GAVEL

"Our club this year, in trying to serve the high school more effectively, has undertaken the thankless task of instituting the new reserve seat system for Waukegan's dramatic productions. It was a hard job, but we pulled it through with ease." Mr. Devore

"One of our major activities was sponsoring the annual speech invitational. It gave us a chance to see how the others were doing and it also proved very interesting for the students and the public."

"Although our membership was smaller than usual, we accomplished more than ever before." Doug Mihevc

"This year's Debate Club gained a few members but was still a small club. Although the people we did have were fairly good debaters we could have used a few more for a little more competition." Lynette White

"I think a lack of trying hard to win was lacking from this years club. If we would have gotten out there and really fought, we would have won many more contests."

"Students who join the club should have to take a test on debate terms and procedures to find out if they're good debaters." Debbie Shramek

THESPIANS

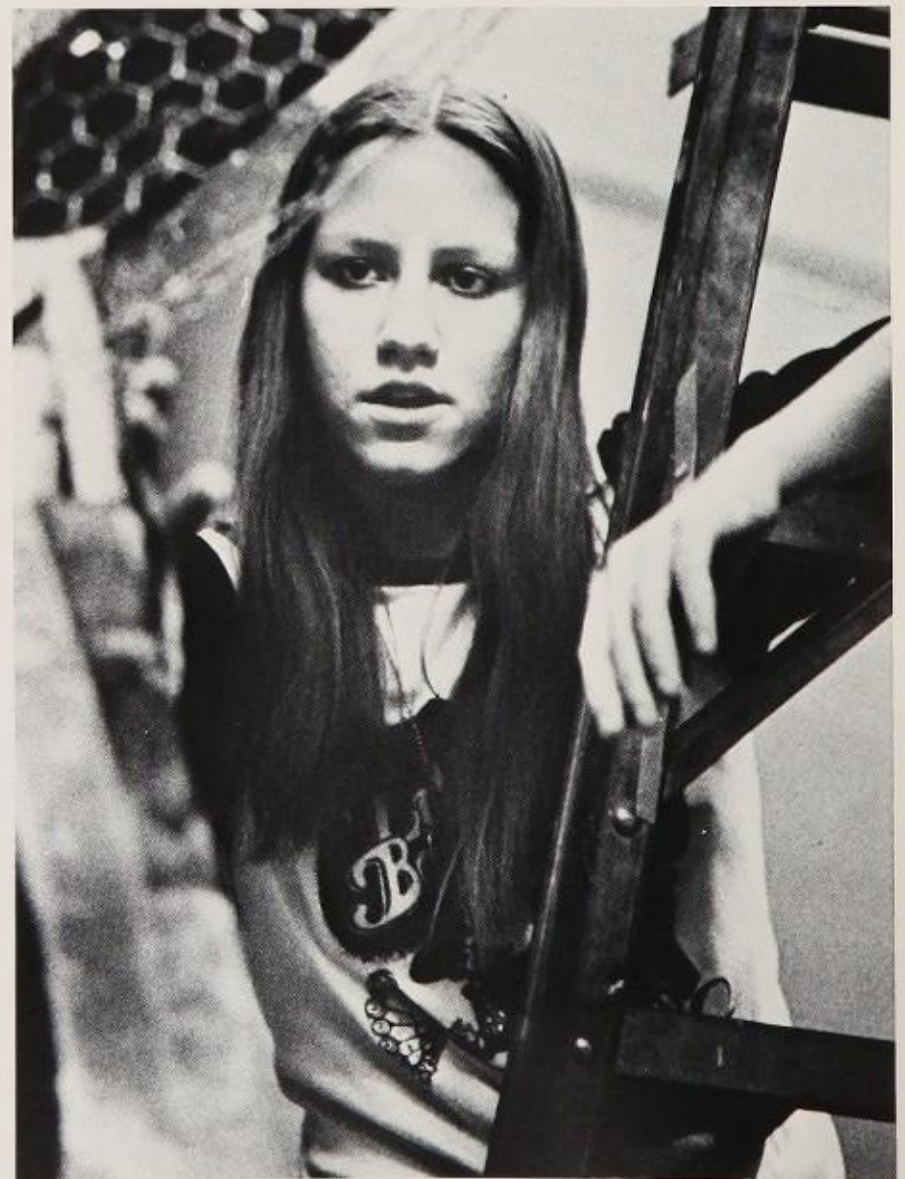

"Because so many people cared enough to work in the theatre, Thespians had to have a mid-year initiation ceremony, which really expanded the club's membership. It makes you happy to think how much you have contributed to the theatre." Carol Alleman

"This year our club didn't have a lot of unity. Some of the officers didn't even care about the club. This really brought down the morale of prospective members. Mike Hotchkiss

"This year Thespians was a lot larger club than last year. The large attendance helped us raise our financial standings and caused more involvement which made the club better all together."

Karen Marlow tried out some make-up techniques on her victim, Carol Alleman.

CHEMISTRY CLUB

"Chemistry requires a certain way of thinking about the world and many people do not think that way. So they do other things." Mr. L. L. Larsen

"Chemistry Club is non-existent. It's all a story of Mr. Larsen's futile attempts to make a little extra money!" Jennifer Macuiba

"The Chemistry Club is by far the biggest bunch of fools in this whole school!" Dave Shuster

"Since I joined Chemistry Club, I feel that my understanding of the science has grown zero percent." J.B.

"Being forced to take Chemistry by my counselor, I thought I'd hate it. Chemistry Club and Mr. Larsen had convinced me that the subject is not all that bad." 73

CHESS CLUB

"Chess is a game of skill instead of luck. It involves many strategic possibilities." Jeff Barnett

"This was the first year for the East Campus Chess Club, and I think it was a good one, too. It gave the kids interested in playing chess a chance to get more experience." Kerry Barnett

"Chess club helped me improve my skills and better my mental concentration." Jim Niblack

BLACK STUDENT UNION

"We haven't really got started yet but we do have a lot going for the club. We get together and talk about our problems in school and try to find the solutions." Melinda Tanner

"We discuss racial problems that happen in school. We try and keep the problems between teachers and students to a minimum." Diane Jones

"One of the discussions we had was on an open-campus situation. It didn't go over too hot. We try to get equal rights for the blacks and try to stop the trouble between blacks and whites before it starts." R. Pitts

"We really hope the club turns out to be a success in future years. We think we've started something that is really worth the trouble. More members would help too."

Taking blood pressure was one of the skills that the girls in health careers learned, in preparing for a health occupation.

HEALTH CAREERS

"All the members of Health Careers seem to have liked it. The club was based on giving information concerning careers in the health fields. We have gone on field trips to museums to learn more and more information. The club also was partially a social club. The members were able to get together just to have fun. All in all, the club has been a huge success." B. Lowrance

"Being in health careers club has been a lot of fun for me. We did a lot of interesting things such as going to museums and health centers. We learned quite a bit of information on all aspects of health careers. I hope that next year, we will have more members." K. Anastoff

"Knowing that a scholarship is offered to members of the Future Nurses Club brings the girls closer together." Sharon Lyons

"We met once every two weeks and chose only dedicated and willing officers. The members of our club worked together to make a Christmas basket for the needy and to plan a bikeathon in the spring." Sue Bickham

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS

"I am in the club to help my role as a housewife. We took a field trip to Northern Ill. University for a Home Ec. day and saw all the things that can help us if we decide to go into Home Ec. studies." Cheryl Carpenter

"I joined F.H.A. because I really enjoyed my Home Ec. class, so I thought it would be fun."

"In the club we kind of continue Home Ec. class but vary our projects. At our next meeting we are going to learn the techniques of macramé."

Distributive Education involved many jobs outside of school. Adela Macias worked as a cashier in a local supermarket.

DISTRIBUTIVE EDUCATION

"I feel that Distributive Education had determined my future. Knowing I didn't plan to go to college, I figured I needed to find a decent job. D.E., as a class, was important in finding good work. I learned many things about advertising, displays, etc." Bonnie Lepisto

"D.E. was a class that I didn't mind going to. What I learned in that class was also important out of school. Grades weren't hard to get and the teacher wasn't too bad." Sandy Tripp

"D.E. was a class I took because my counselor told me to. So, before I entered, my attitude was bad. After one semester, I decided to take it my senior year so here I am. I'm very glad to know that I'll have a job that I will keep for a while." '73

Constructing and upholstering a chair was one of the mandatory tasks for woodshop students.

COOPERATIVE WORK TRAINING

"Our goal was total involvement in school activities, and developing new friendships." Mr. Padilla

"This being the first of the club, we had a bake sale at Rec-nite to get us on our feet. We totaled the second highest income that night." Audrey Blair

"The parties we had helped to develop new friendships." Ronda Richardson

CROSSED SABERS

"Crossed Sabers is a group of ROTC cadets that supports all military functions such as Military Ball and floats and judges for the Homecoming Parade." Jim Choyke

"Crossed Sabers is even better than the G.I. Joe Club." Anonymous

"Through Crossed Sabers, ROTC teaches an individual to become a leader." T. Rucks

"Taking ROTC is beneficial for the preparation of being in the army. Crossed Sabers is one of the good things with it." Dave Lang

Sighting in the target, Bob Staskiewicz tried his luck at ROTC's Rec Night booth, the turkey shoot.

Certain to keep eyes right, the drill team and the sponsors gave a 15-gun salute to the judges at the Homecoming Parade.

During the presentation of the colors at a basketball game, Joyce Merzlicker and Sue Fletcher performed an intricate weapons drill.

DRILL TEAM

"The drill team was known for their outstanding drill techniques. We hope that someday we can be number one in the state. We will be able to go on to compete." Lyndell Robinson

"The drill team was a bunch of guys who got together because they liked to march. Together we have become very proficient. In the future, we hope to go on to exhibition." C. Bell

Once a week the ROTC cadets dragged out the uniforms, polished up the brass and shined up the shoes for inspection.

A lack of space to march in caused these cadets to use the rifle range as a part-time drill field.

SPONSORS

"The sponsors who were members of the color guard and drill team, had shown enthusiasm in their various assignments given by the R.O.T.C. Their appearance and precision at athletic events have done much to enhance the name of the Military." S.M. Brennan

"We learned what R.O.T.C. really is and had fun at the same time." Linda Krapf

"I should never have become one." Anonymous

SPONSORS: (Front Row) K. Nighsonger, N. Trifunovich. (Row 2) P. Burke, J. Turner, S. Amelio. (Row 3) S. Counihan, D. Hemphill, J. Schmidt, K. January. (Row 4) L. Krapf, J. Merzlicker, M. Killing, S. Fletcher.

The flag had to be presented at every school function. The ROTC sponsors took over this duty at many of the basketball games.

ARTS CLUB

"Half of our members aren't even in art classes, but we must have some hidden talent."

T. Staskiewicz

"Arts Club is a club where imaginations begin, develop, and get carried out." M. Chrzanowski

"We don't have too many members but we have a lot of fun, such as making our Homecoming floats and taffy apples for Rec. Night. Art Club is organized confusion." J. Z.

The dance club members learned the basic dance steps and how to keep their poise when dancing. It was open to all students, with no dancing experience necessary.

DANCE CLUB

"The Dance Club's purpose was for the learning and the enjoyment of ballroom dancing." Stephen Smith

"Some of the dances we learned were the tango, the rumba, and the thoroughly modern." Craig Cantrell

"At first we weren't very interested in dance, but when we really started to like it, it kind of grew on us." Scott Castillo

Exotic gym B was the scene when Mr. Dolmar tripped the light fantastic with the Dance Club.

Trying to perfect her dance for the Orchesis show, Janet TenPas's face portrayed her concentration.

Gracefulness and agility are essentials in the art of dancing for Orchesis.

"Orchesis is a modern dance club of dance interpretation. The kids work up dances to express the theme in the annual show. This year's is "Rhythm Is Life". B. L.

"For some members of Orchesis, it's like a stepping stone to a career." G. S.

"To me, dancing is the ultimate expression. Orchesis teaches you grace and helps you improve your dancing skills. I think we need more professional instruction." K. King

GAA OFFICERS

"GAA is for girls interested in athletics and helps to get them started in sports. As president, I organize different activities." Fran Tait

"I think the purpose of GAA is to give girls with athletic ability a chance to perform and show their potentials. Of course, when girls sports started, a lot of members went into that, but I like GAA."

"The Girl's Athletic Association consists of intermurals, Dolphins, and Orchesis. I am mainly involved in intermurals. It's my job to supervise our activities when the president isn't there." P. F.

POM PONS

"The purpose of Pom Pons is to entertain during half time at Football and Basketball games. I really enjoy it because I love to dance." S. Serkowski

"I used to watch the Pom Pon girls when I was a little kid and I guess I just wanted a place out there for myself." V. Williams

"Pom Pons looked fun to me; it is a chance to work out and use my abilities." M. K.

"I like to have hobbies and be in clubs, but I think Pom Pons needs better leadership." D. F.

Miss Abbott gives her final instructions to some of the anxiously waiting Pom Pon girls before their performance at the pep rally.

The Pom Pons performed at many of the football and basketball games. They showed off their talents during this game.

Burdened by heavy raincoats, these girls found it difficult to do the regular cheers.

CHEERLEADING

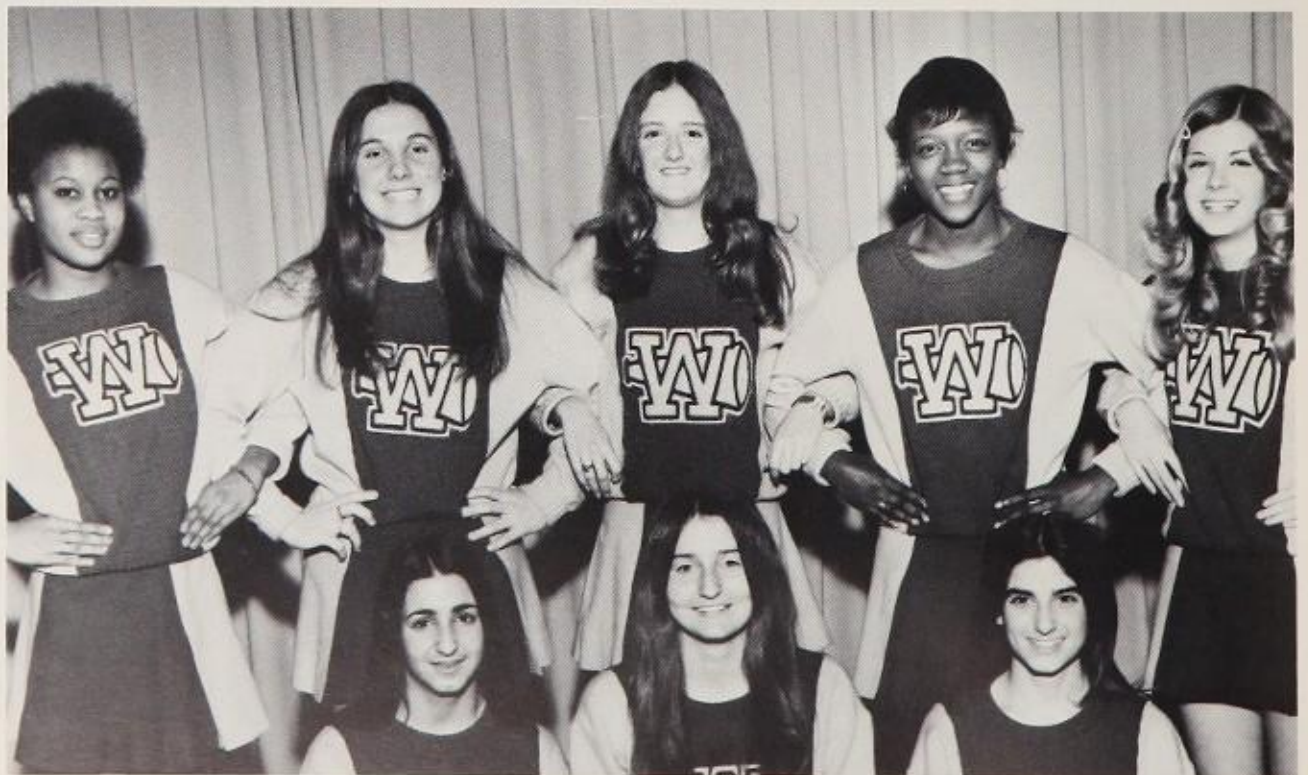

"This year the cheerleaders were able to work together and cooperate with each other, making the squads better." Conni Brazelton

"I really enjoyed cheerleading. It was a lot of hard work representing your school, and showing spirit. I hope that I'm as lucky next year to cheer." Harlene Ricks

"It makes me feel good when a guy on the team walks off the mat happy with his match, and I know that I tried to help him." Diane Furlan

"It's a lot of hard work and trouble, but I'd go through it again." Dawn Detienne

A walking float, created by HRD for the Homecoming parade, was an attempt to put their vocal ability and school spirit on display.

HRD

"HRD is the only club that is mainly for fun. It lets you be a complete idiot at school functions without anyone caring because they're doing a good job at it themselves!" Mary Tomassini

"HRD is a good way to promote school spirit. More kids should get involved. It's the only club where you can be nominated for president, vice-president, and treasurer all in one day, then lose all three elections, and still have fun being part of the club!" Willie

"HRD doesn't always get a lot done, but everyone has a good time." Dave Ulicki

"I didn't know what HRD meant when I joined, and I still don't know. But it's a riot anyway." MGH

Stamping and clapping, Home Rooting Dynamos began the basketball game with their traditional "here we go, Bulldogs" cheer.

While trying to suppress a chuckle, John Warner listened to another concession stand pep talk.

W CLUB

"It's an organization formed for the purpose of bringing athletes together."

"In W Club we get to see movies of our state champs and have some fun afterwards."

"W Club is a get together of all Waukegan High School athletes. I learned to respect other sports than the one I'm in."

These fine young men share a laugh over one of those many riotous things that go on at W Club.

WAUKEGAN SPORTS AIDES

"In WSA, the girls do various things such as timing at swim meets, flash scores and weights for wrestling, and present the judge's scores at the gymnastic meets." Sharon Delfs

"The reason I was in WSA was to get into basketball games free and be able to work in the concession stand." J.R.

"WSA is an organization for girls who are interested in sports."

WSA member Lisa Guokus diligently counted this boy's change at the concession stand during the basketball game.

To keep the correct score posted, these WSA members kept a close eye on the referee during the wrestling match.

han, C. Nix. (Row 3) K. Frick, J. Justin, D. Renouf, J. Patchett, D. Whitaker, W. Paulison, C. Uresy, D. Coad, D. Devcich.

TRI-M

"Modern Music Masters is for people who really believe in music to be a part of our lives." Karen Sandager

"As a Modern Music Master, I feel that each individual should strive to stand up to the real meaning of the club. Many people feel that it is just another thing to add to their list of social activities. It is an honor and more people should realize this." D. Devcich

"Try-em you'll like em!" Dennis Yauch

"Most people don't even know that Modern Music Masters exists! We should get more publicity." D.C.

ORCHESTRA

"Music is a universal language that everyone understands. The meaning of music is more than just the understanding of the composition. It is the enjoyment that comes from listening and also the satisfaction of playing an instrument yourself. I am able to get a satisfaction such as this from being in the orchestra." Diane Hemphill

"The members of orchestra should be recognized more for their talent. Not everyone has the ability to play an instrument really well. Although we play a variety of music, "The Messiah" was our best performance." B. Fisher

Mr. Gilkey again led the Orchestra through their annual concert. This year's event featured two solos, Richard Thomas on cello and David Cantwell on piano.

ORCHESTRA: (Row 1) D. Cantwell, S. Stritar, M. Medulla, G. Capra, D. Frick, P. Flanagan, S. Drummond, R. Thomas. (Row 2) M. Matias, K. Benivegna, D. Hemphill, M. Teigland, K. Popoff, J. Justin, R. Tichter, D. Renouf, P. Lux, K. Fields, K. Pederson, R. Emerich, M. Gaziano, T.

"I've played clarinet since fourth grade. Band gives you an opportunity to take trips and play in concerts. It's fun marching for football games and playing at basketball games."

"Band helps you become acquainted with different composers. Mr. Gilkey chooses the music on the basis of the band's ability."

"Naturally, there are kids in band more advanced than others. Because of this, we try to play music in which all levels will sound their best."

"The reason I'm in band is to get opinions from other people concerning my playing."

Trying to get the most out of their musical ability, these two musicians harmonized a familiar tune.

The excitement of the football game was lost on these band members as they conversed and tuned their instruments.

VARSITY BAND: (Row 1) T. Whitaker, D. Devcich, J. Staskewich, E. Maurstad, B. Himmelbloom, H. Robinson, C. Nix, D. White, K. Bentivegna, M. Dinger, D. Renouf, J. Justin. (Row 2) D. Coad, G. A CAPELLA

"To me, A Cappella is doing what I love best, doing it at my best. It is something I will really miss when I'm gone." Mary Ann O'Brien

"I am not a poet, but A Cappella lets me express myself the way I want to."

"A Cappella gives me a good chance to express myself vocally. Everyone who belongs to A Cappella enjoys it as much as I do." Karen Marlow

"Junior A Cappella is one of those classes when some days you really have to think about what you're doing and the rest, you just go in and have fun." Deb Holger

"Blow The Wind Southerly", "Lament", "Waterboy", and "Somewhere Over The Rainbow" were among the songs sung by A Cappella during their performance at the spring concert.

"Soccer requires teamwork and co-operation. A team might have the greatest players, but if they don't work together, they are nothing." Gary Slettum

"Soccer players must be in top physical shape. They also must be ready mentally throughout the season to win or to lose." Glenn Beausoleil

"I tried out for soccer to get in shape for other sports. I didn't know much about it, but I learned. Now I like soccer a lot." D. Echevarria

"This season was good varsity experience. We had a poor season because of immaturity on the part of all players. Our defense was good, and if our offense improves we'll be great!" Larry Zelenz

"Next year I'm looking forward to having one of the best teams in the state. We have some guys coming back that could be all-state material." H. Diaz

"The crowds at our games this year were the biggest I've seen! Their enthusiasm really helped us. If soccer catches on at WHS, the fans will support the most trying sport we have." Gary Sackman

"To be a good soccer player you have to master the ball and your body. You need to control both." L. Zelenz

GIRLS TENNIS

"I could hardly believe it! There I was playing tennis . . . I now knew what it was like trying to represent your school. Nervous! We had so much fun. It was really worth it." Jennifer Macuiba

"It was about time that the girls got a chance to compete against other schools and represent their own. This year, a step was made in the right direction." Linda Anderson

"Since this was just the first year of girl's sports, we were not in competition that much. We had a great time though, and made a great start for future years." Sue Rose

"The girl's tennis team got quite a turnout for their first year. I was very proud of each girl on the team." Ula Bell

"As a sophomore, I saw that our team had a lot of potential talent. I also thought that we all found out our mistakes and learned how to correct them, preparing us for varsity and junior varsity football." Jeff Forster

"I feel that the Suburban League is getting tougher every year, but since Waukegan has started football in the grade schools and the junior highs, the teams coming up have a lot better knowledge of the techniques and the game of football." Bob Melius

"I think that we had some great talent this year and used it well in a few games. But due to a few injuries and some bad breaks, we didn't end up where we wanted to." Steve Sedar

"If I play football in college, I'm looking forward to seeing fans coming to watch in any kind of weather. Also, I'm looking forward to harder contact." Barry Alston

Another costly fumble by the Waukegan offense prevented a scoring drive from progressing further.

Battle plan set, assignments acknowledged, the Bulldog defense was ready to thwart any maneuvers planned by the opposition.

Doc Reedy was a patient observer at the football games.

After a tough set of downs on defense, Steve Nosek and Steve Sedar took a refreshing pause to review upcoming parties.

Dan Memmen is set to hand off. But New Trier West's front five prepares to bust up another scoring drive.

Balancing on one foot isn't easy, especially with a Waukegan tackle on your back.

While the Bulldog quarterback looked on, the ball carrier fell short of his goal after a crushing tackle.

With opponents close on his heels, Barry Alston swept the right end for a small gain.

GIRLS GOLF

"It was great getting to know girls from other schools. Playing, this year, was not really competitive, but more fun. But, we still had a 3-1 record at the end of the season." Lori Sackman

"Half the fun of being on the team was attempting to play in the wet weather. We played teams from Grayslake, Lake Forest, and Libertyville. I feel that next year more girls will be out for golf since this year's team enjoyed it so much." Julie Roth

CROSS COUNTRY

"Most people can't see what there is to like about Cross Country. It's team spirit and unity that kept the team together and let you know you were a true athlete." Chuck Wilson

"As sophomores we didn't have as good of a season as we did freshmen year. Next year, I think the team will be the best that Waukegan has had." Richard Krapf

"Everyone on the team pulls for one another, is concerned for one another, and we all help one another. The feeling for each other is what makes the team a winner." Dean Erdal

At the end of the big race, this Cross Country runner was surprised to know he came in fourth.

The Bulldogs achieved a task no other team had in 58 games, defeating the 1971 and 1972 State Basketball champions, the Thornridge Falcons. Jerome Whitehead was the leading scorer with 18 points.

The timeout was one of the major parts of Waukegan's game plan. Strategy, helpful hints, and jokes were all part of the routine of getting up from the bench only to sit right down two minutes later.

BASKETBALL

"Everybody on the team is there to give everything he's got and to win the game. Even though we lost a few, the right spirit was still there." Steve Katz

"I think that when the players joined the team they knew what to expect. They wouldn't be playing basketball if they didn't like to."

"When I go to the game I like to sit behind the other team and listen to their coach yell." Kerrie Cunningham

"In my opinion, the Thornridge game was the highlight of the year. A winner needs talent, desire, and coaching, we had two out of three." Jim Odorizzi and John Warner

"Like most sports here, Basketball is not as popular as it has been in past years. After all the work put into the team more people should turn out to see the game." Bill Zinn

North Chicago beat the Bulldogs for the third year in a row. Waukegan came back to tie the score in the late stages of the game on shots like this by Jerome Whitehead, but Gary Petric's shot at the buzzer gave the boys from the other side of 10th Street another victory.

Waukegan's height advantage over New Trier proved valuable as Gary Sackman put this shot way out of reach.

Tom Simmons kept his eye on the basket as he attempted to penetrate New Trier's defense.

Waukegan's win over Proviso East was aided by team work and sharp shooting at the free throw line.

This was the first year for girl's competitive basketball at Waukegan. Aiming for the rim, number 41 hopes to make a free throw.

GIRL'S BASKETBALL

"I thought we were pretty good for our first year in a competitive sport."

"Girl's Basketball is the best thing this school started this year. I wish we had more students coming to our games, we could use their support."

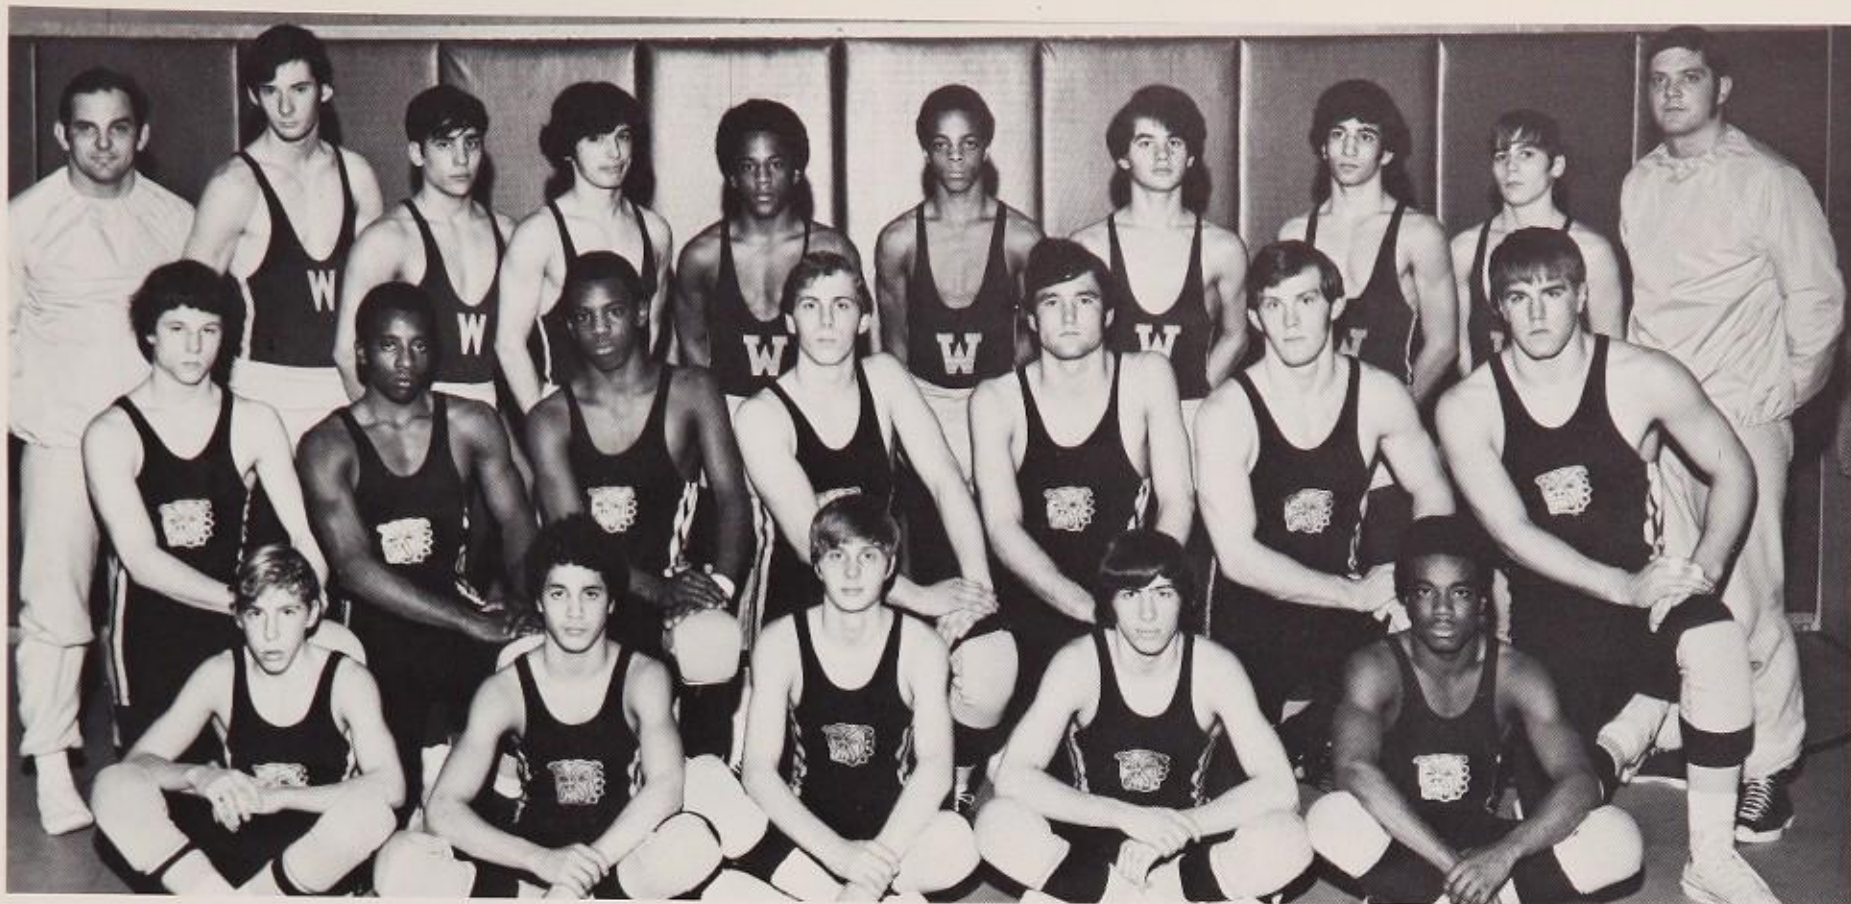

"Girl's Basketball was really fun. I think they should continue the sport next year because it offers girls something other than cheerleading." C. Conners

WRESTLING

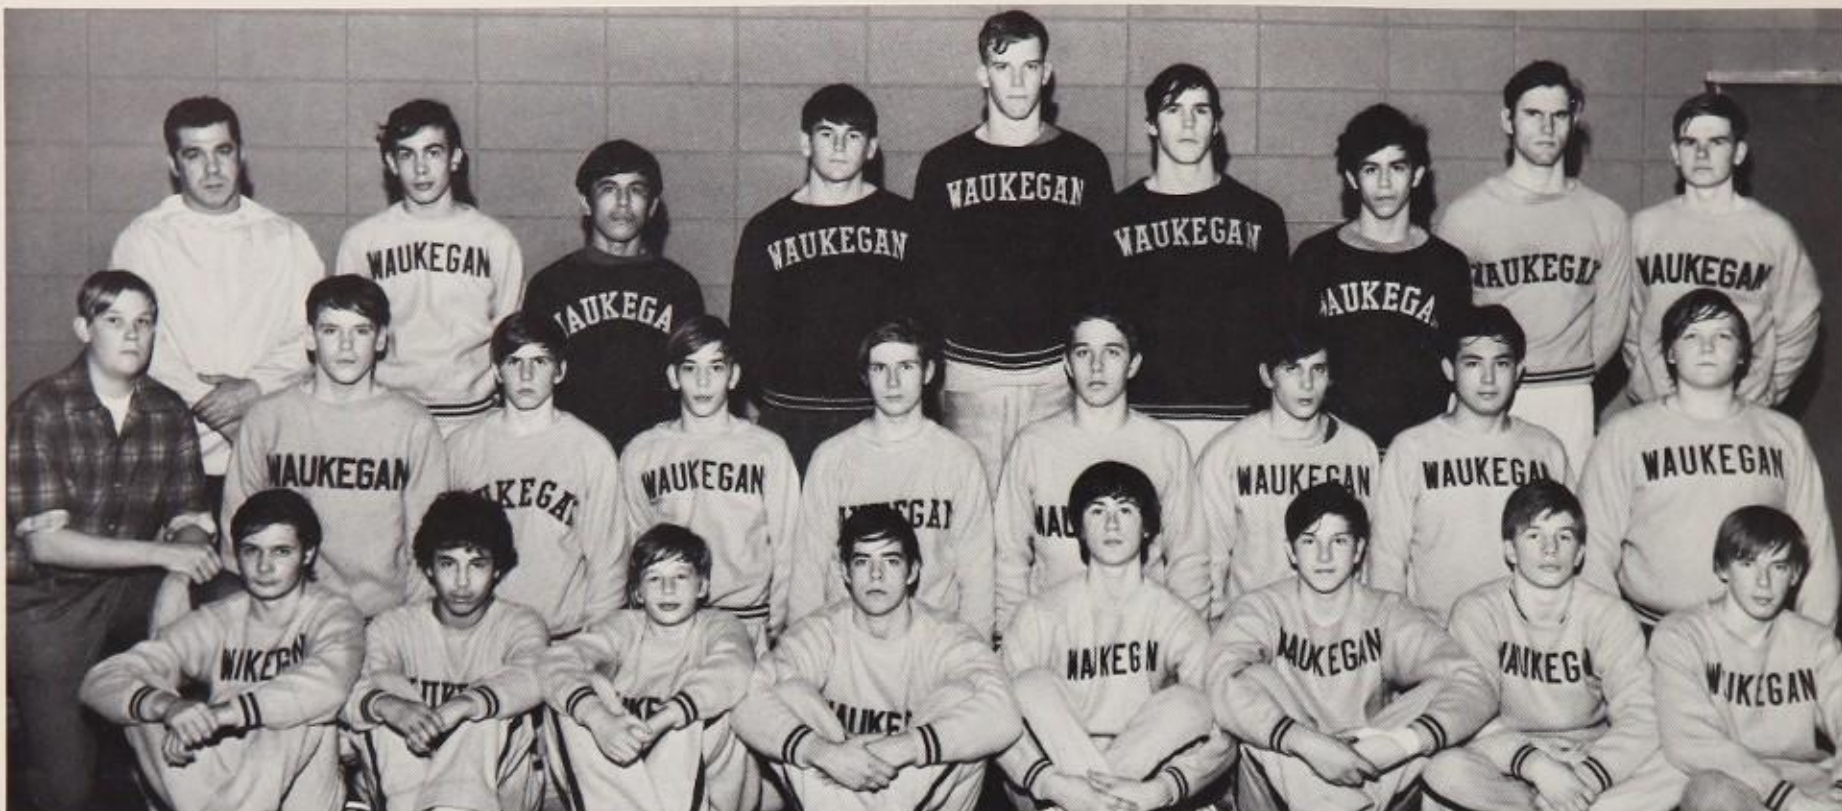

"Our wrestling team wasn't the powerhouse this year that it usually is; it was too young. This, however, is just an indication of good teams in the future. I like the guys on the team and I think with hard work, some of them will really be tough." Doug Richards

"Why do I continue to wrestle? The last time I was pinned was in 8th grade. I won't give up until I'm pinned again. Giving up on the mat means giving up on wrestling. This year our team lacked depth and experience. We only had 4 seniors from the '69 freshman team out for wrestling. To me this was a let down. But we did a good job with the people we had out." Scott Castillo

BASEBALL

"The guys on the team got along pretty well. There was as much joking on the field as off." G. Murphy

"Baseball needs more student support and better equipment."

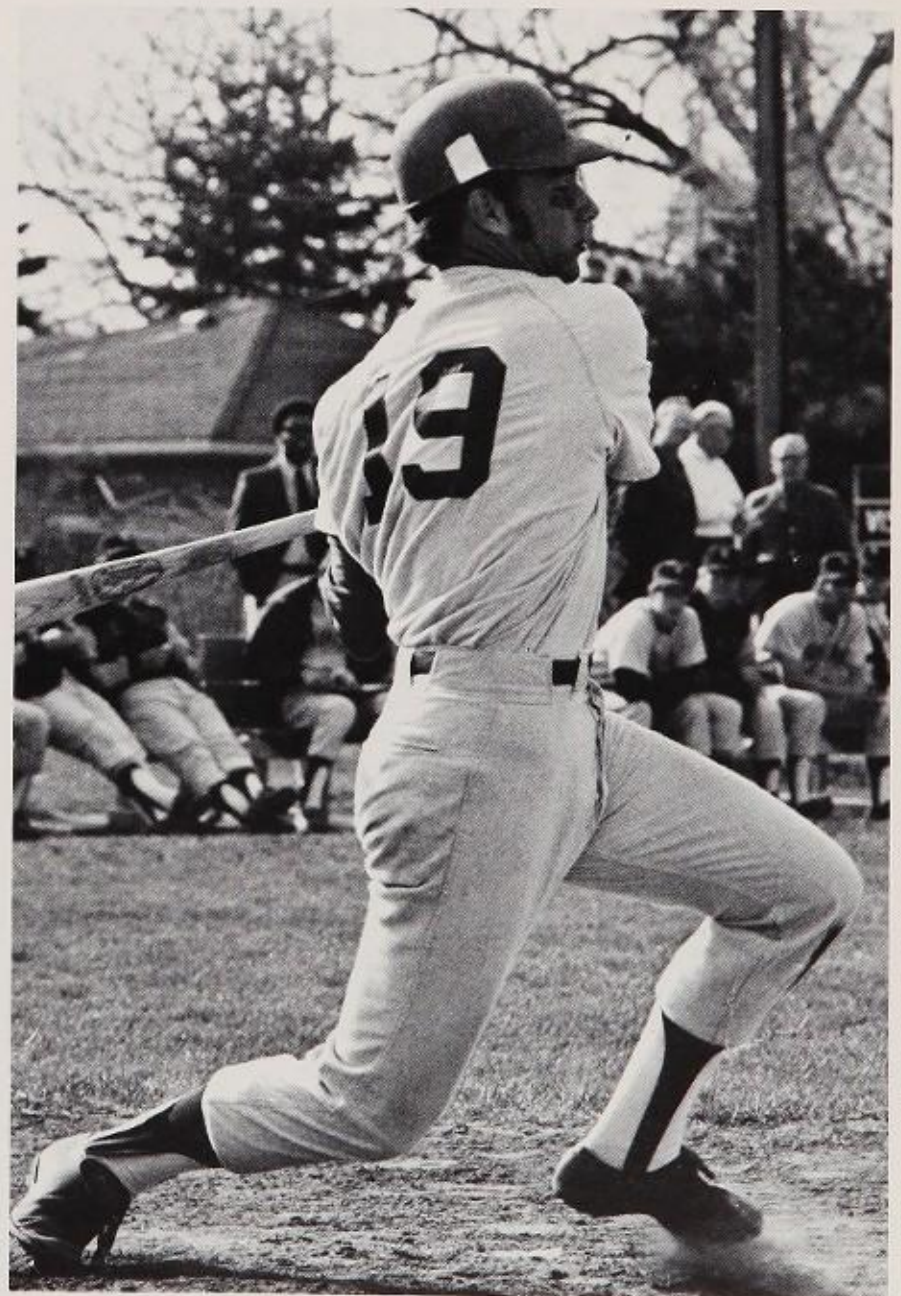

"I think we'll have a good chance to go to the state finals in '73. We need a few more pitchers, a lot of hitting, and a first baseman. If we get all this, we'll do good." J. Bairstow

"I outfielded for five games, then they got smart and I sat on the bench." G. Holland

"With a 7-7 record, the season wasn't the greatest, but it was a lot of fun." P. Gordon

Once the batter was in position to bunt, this Waukegan catcher used his quick reflexes to throw out the runner.

This look of self-confidence was the result of hours of strenuous practice.

Jeff DeLoof (Chopper) found out that he had to run sprints with everybody else even though he was a shot-putter.

TRACK

"If the Waukegan Track team could stick together and have spirit, we could have a good season. Another reason is we have a lot of potential." Jeff DeLoof

"Being on Track is a lot of hard work. We really have to work to be a good team."

"Most people didn't realize what a fine sport track is. I think it would have been neat to get a few fans out to cheer us on." Brian Labus

These varsity golfers, Don, Gary, and Dave, wait to tee off with that certain feeling of confidence.

GOLF

"The majority of spots on the Varsity team were held by Juniors who received the experience throughout the season to make next years squad one of Waukegan's best." Steve Brown

"I think we have the potential but the key to our success will be the desire within the individual." Larry Della Posta

"This year we are planning on having one of the best skilled teams Waukegan has ever had." Jerry Mayer

"We had a lot of individual talent which enabled us to become a strong squad." Jim Vanderventer

"We had a decent team this year but I think the odds could go either way in the next couple years." B. Ambrose Golf is well-known as a mentally taxing sport. Byron Ambrose concentrates on lining up this putt for a perfect shot.

Though the netmen had trouble against opponents, Mark Johnson retained the determination to keep trying.

TENNIS

"When the tennis team wanted to get it together for a victory, it had to be a joint effort. Everyone had to get right in there and get involved. They had to learn to help each other. We were lucky this year to have this involvement in our teams." Jim Tometz

"Tennis is a sport that requires skill, but moreover practice to make it great the way it should be. This year's team helped to epitomize this fact." Steve Katz

"In previous years, tennis was considered more important because more guys went out for it. Now, there is much apathy and there are not enough people interested in making our tennis team known." Dan Kocal

"We had a great time playing this year. We were lucky to have all our teammates working along together." Steve Kaiser

"If more people were interested in tennis, it would build the morale of the tennis players. We had the great advantages of having spirit and skill among our team. We were great together." Scott Bickham

Varsity tennis player, Steve Burkhardt, uses his foolproof backhand swing to ace his opponent.

"Do I add ten or subtract from this frame or the last one?" This girl found out that scoring at intramural bowling wasn't easy.

INTRAMURALS

"Intramural basketball was really a pretty cool idea especially being on Friday. After a long boring week of school it was good to get out and play a little basketball. Sometimes it seemed more like football, but that's alright because I like football better anyway. But, I liked it and I knew the other dudes did too." Jerry Tuggle

"Intramurals were where boys and girls competed after school to show courage and strength in several events." Garry Brady

"Being involved in GAA was the best way to get rid of extra energy and to meet new people." Sue Cascarano

"To me GAA offered recreation and enjoyment that provided a change from the burdens I had in school. We played volleyball, basketball, and participated in track and gymnastics. We also had picnics and parties." Diane

"In general, intramurals were 100% better than doing nothing after school!" S.C.

Friday after school, intramurals were held for any interested boys. These players engage in a rousing game of floor hockey.

With a strike in mind, this GAA bowler showed excellent form during one of the after school meets held at Bertrand's.

Intramurals proved an excellent and rewarding way to keep this girl's body in good physical shape.

Intramural bowling gave these students the chance to polish their tenpin skills.

On January 27, as the entire world looked on, Secretary of State William Rogers met with the North Vietnamese delegation in Paris, to end 14 years involvement in Vietnam. Months before President Nixon assured his reelection by announcing the immediate end of the war, when in reality the peace talks had started years before. The treaty stipulated that P.O.W.'s would be released 60 days after the signing took place. Immediate withdrawal of the troops began.

After winning the Democratic nomination with 52% of the vote, Dan Walker unseated Governor Ogilvie in the '72 Illinois Gubernatorial election. Walker's victory was attributed to a non-graduated state income tax enacted in '69, one year after Ogilvie's no tax pledge.

He lived with it four years. The expectations of the 1968 Olympic games at Mexico City and the memory of the failure had splashed around the pools with him for four agonizing years. Seven gold medals and his reputation as a choker was heavily on his mind when he started Olympic competition Aug. 28. MARK SPITZ left the Munich games with seven gold medals, seven new world records, fame worth about five million dollars and with no doubt in his mind about who was the greatest male swimmer of the world.

It rated only 6.25 on the Richter scale, but in terms of death and destruction, the earthquake that jolted Managua, Nicaragua, December 23, 1972, was among the worst ever recorded in the Western Hemisphere. With 20,000 injuries and 6000 deaths, the once carefree, bustling capital became a tenement of rubble and contamination. One other life lost in the tragedy was that of baseball great Roberto Clemente, as he died in a plane crash while heading the Puerto Rican relief effort to Managua.

The year of 1972-73 brought memories of many sorts to the mind of Richard M. Nixon. His reelection in November of 1972 was the largest landslide victory in history. Pressures from Vietnam caused Nixon to end the war and withdraw troops in January of 1973. World tours by the President and his family brought the nations of the World closer together in peace. The year of 1972-73, a year to be remembered in the eyes of President Nixon.

Fighting against death with the same determination he had in everything he did, Harry Truman the nation's 33rd President died after a 22 day struggle on December 26, in Kansas City's Research Hospital. 88 year old Truman's spunk and will were evident throughout his life and career. He had to make more influential decisions than most American Presidents. It was Truman who ordered Atomic bombs dropped on Hiroshima and Nagasaki in 1945. It was Truman's Marshall plan that committed U.S. resources to the rebuilding of Europe. Still later, he risked war by ordering U.S. forces into the field of South Korea against Communist invasion. Through the years of power and retirement, Truman never lost his modesty. When asked about his accomplishments he said, "I did the best I could throughout my life."

On December 6, 1972 at 9:53 A.M., the launch of Apollo 17 marked the end of the 24 billion dollar Apollo Moon Project. After a short fifteen years in space, the U.S. had achieved space walks, moon walks, pictures of Venus and Mars, and many other astronomical feats. Now Eugene A. Cernan, Ronald E. Evans, and Jack Schmitt manned the final flight in the Apollo mission. Many skeptics felt the entire project a waste of the taxpayers money. Future plans for space experimentation include a space station to be completed in the early 1980's.

Since 1846, the standard law concerning abortions allowed physicians to terminate a pregnancy only if it endangered the mother's life. Because it threatens the mother's privacy and personal choice in matters of sex and family life, pro-abortionists claimed this law unconstitutional. A petition calling for the repeal of Michigan's abortion laws was raised by hundreds of demonstrators as they converged on the steps of the state Capitol. However, before Michigan could act, the Supreme Court ruled abortions legal.

On February 27th, 100 American Indian Movement (AIM) members initiated a takeover at Wounded Knee which lasted for 37 days. The AIM members wanted national attention focused on the plight of the American Indian. The Indians feel they should have more say on the curricula of Indian schools and to own more of the businesses on the reservation now owned by whites. The right feelings towards the Indian's situation came when Marlon Brando refused his Oscar for "The Godfather" because he felt that the motion picture industry was responsible for making the character of the Indian savage and evil.

Has man triumphed over nature? Proof of this is in Winthrop Harbor where Lake Michigan is rising to home-wrecking proportions of erosion. It has risen 5 feet since 1964. It seems possible that in a decade eastern Waukegan will be facing the same problem.

President Nixon's adviser on foreign affairs, Dr. Henry Kissinger, played an integral part in the mechanics for peace in Viet Nam. At a certain point it seemed as if settlement complications might bring talks to a stand still. But his intelligent handling of the negotiation was a personal triumph and he will probably be noted as the man who put an end to the 14 year involvement of the United States in Viet Nam.

There were no cheers, no dancing, as the longest war in U.S. history was ended. The war which four U.S. presidents considered a necessary act of resistance against Communism had killed nearly 46,000 Americans. Those who survived were filled with the phantom pain which endures even after a wound is repaired.

The close of the 1972 Summer Olympics brought memories to many countries. United States remembered Mark Spitz, Russia remembered Olga Korbut, and Israel never forgot its 11 coaches and athletes who were murdered in an unexpected Arab terrorist attack on the Israeli living quarters in Munich. While the Olympic flame symbolized international peace, the Games were temporarily cancelled and a memorial service, attended by 80,000 people, was held for the dead Israeli athletes.

L. Patrick Gray, President Nixon's nominee for the director of the FBI, withdrew from contention after ten months as the acting head because of pressure by such groups as the Senate Judiciary Committee who said that Gray failed to push the investigation of the Watergate bugging affair hard enough out of his loyalty for the president.

In the presidential plane nine years ago Lyndon B. Johnson took the oath of office in the wake of Kennedy's assassination. Feeling it was his mission to unite the nation, he did much for housing, antipoverty, education, conservation, civil rights, and medicare. He created a "Great Society" which will shape American lives for years to come. Two days after his death on January 25, the war which he had "inherited" came to an end. In announcing the cease-fire Nixon said, "No one would have welcomed this peace more than he."

VIVA (Voices in Vital America), this organization made it possible for any American to share the concern of a POW family. Through a nationwide sale of bracelets and bumper stickers, money was raised to print propaganda to arouse public sympathy for POW's. But the POW's themselves after returning, kept quiet on their treatment during captivity until all of their compatriots came home.

COLOPHON

The 1973 Annual W was printed by American Yearbook Company in Topeka, Kansas. The headlines are 12 pt. Times Roman Italic. All other type is Optima with italics. Body type is 10/12 pt. captions are 8/10 pt., and the index and underclass identifications are 6/8 pt. Senior portraits are from Root Studios in Chicago, Illinois. The News Sun and the Associated Press in cooperation with Wide World Photos provided some of the photographs on page 162 and pages 254-271. Lettering on the half title page and the division pages was drawn by Randy Harju.

What have we tried to say in a book of this caliber? The 1973 Annual W is a collection of the thoughts from one school year. It speaks for no one but to everyone as the opinions of a high school, a true exhibition of feelings and emotions. Our pictures transcend mere photographs, but also come from the many people who painted a scene of life in a high school with their many comments. Our thanks to you.

Doug
I'm glad I have someone smarter than Henry to talk to in Spanish.
Stay with baseball and don't listen to Enrica.
It was fun in Spanish hope to see you next year.

Leoby

To Doug:
you are one of the nicest persons I ever met. Good Luck Always.

Love,
Becky

Doug,
I'm happy,
of the happy
basketball
got happened to be you.
Got some of the most professional big man, move like ever seen. Hope, you'll try the bench or floor to brighten up Glad that you were in excited with the kumba band. Dad you say so far away.
Have a great summer. I'll most likely see you.

Doug, we finally made it!
Hall, we finally made it!
shames so much for all the help! Everybody knew & didn't cheat, miss till down was a real struggle but we made it! stay cool & hang in there! I'll see you next year. ok?
lots of love,
Dri

Doug,

It was fun in the back row,
The Row of the Science class.
Shadie's room was boring, while Shadie was boring, the class was fun. You should come over swimming this summer.

Hope to see ya,

Zari

Doug,

Glad you were in homeroom and geometry
we had an alright seating
when we were in back
when we were in back
taxi.

On the others brains and share amusing vokes (all clean of course)

Good Luck

Doug,

To a great guy who I had in World Civilization. It's true you were the smartest in class. Except for Don. (You know the dumb one.

Hope to have you in some of my classes next year so I can tell you what your team did wrong when we beat you. Wait for '75'

Roses Are red
Violets Are blue

Vampires suck
And so do you!

doug,
it was really great having you in 3 classes this year.
I don't know how I would have passed any of my classes without using your answers. I'm lucky I had you as a lab partner, we've had a lot of fun in physical science. I'll always remember our rowdy last row - I'm sure Mr. Allen will too. Well
I'll be seeing you around this summer. good luck always Leslie
